Greyhound Gets 5% Rate Hike OK

But No Change in Commute Fare Or P.H. Branch

A 5 per cent interim increase in one-way and round-trip fares in California other than commute and school fares was granted last Friday by the California Public Utilities Commission to Pacific Greyhound Lines and five other bus companies.

The order specified that the authorized fares may be put into effect upon five days' notice to the commission and the public. William Hastings, general traffic manager of Pacific Greyhound Lines, told The Sun this week that Greyhound will put the new rates into effect next Wednesday.

The increase does not affect commute fares.

The order grants an increase from 15 to 20 cents in minimum one-way fares — but specifically prohibits Greyhound from increasing the 15-cent minimum for commuters who use the Pleasant Hill branch line to or from Lafayette.

These commuters must pay one-way fare for Pleasant Hill branch line trips.

Vigorous opposition to an increase in the Pleasant Hill branch line fares was registered at a PUC hearing session July 26 in the State Building, San Francisco, by the Contra Costa County Commuters Association, through Ray E. Smith of Concord, a director.

For the past few years the Commuters Association has been attempting to win commute rates for the Pleasant Hill run.

"Fares between San Francisco-Oakland and the Pleasant Hill area are the subject of a formal complaint case now pending before the commission," a PUC press release issued by Ralph Bell, special representative, stated.

Lines receiving the 5 per cent interim rate hike authorization are Pacific Greyhound Lines, the Greyhound Corporation (the national Greyhound holding company), Transcontinental Bus System, Continental Pacific Lines, American Buslines and Gibson Lines.

Greyhound and the other companies involved had applied for a 15 per cent rate increase and also for an increase from 15 to 20 cents in minimum one-way fares.

Included in the interim increase authorization are fares for the 10-ride family books issued by Greyhound.

The interim increase was approved "pending final determination of the bus lines' application for a 15 per cent increase," the PUC statement explained.

"Commission transportation engineers are making independent studies which will not be available for presentation in evidence until October," the statement continued.

Opposing Greyhound's application, Smith, at the July 26 hearing session, stated:

"The Contra Costa County Commuters Association hereby protests the application of Pacific Greyhound Lines for intrastate increases in one-way and round-trip fare increases in the State of California for the reason that, while published commute rates are not directly affected by the proposed increases, the one-way and round-trip fares are directly affected, as are also the 10-ride-book fares now published for use in Contra Costa County as well as other parts of the state.

"The aforementioned 10-ride-book fares are frequently used as a matter of necessity by members of the Contra Costa County Commuters Association, who also uponoccasion find it necessary to use round-trip fares and one-way fares.

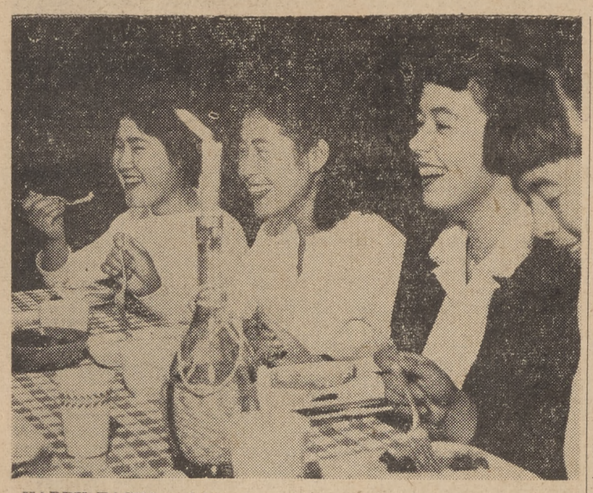
"In the latter instance one-way fares are compulsory upon those commuters who have no choice but to use the Pleasant Hill branch line service to the main line connection.

"This protest is made because of the consistently unsatisfactory level of bus service afforded to commute passengers by the applicant Pacific Greyhound Lines over a period of a number of years which, desipite innumerable complaints and protests to this commission, still fails to provide a sufficient number of bus seats to passengers presenting themselves for transportation to enable them to reach their places of business at the proper times or to start their homeward-bound trips at the proper times.

"It is therefore requested that the subject application be denied by the commission until such time as the applicant's service in Contra Costa County to Oakland, San Francisco and adjacent points shall be carried promptly and without unreasonable delay."

Smith was cross-examined by Greyhound Attorneys Gerald Troutman and Douglas Brookman, who discussed load standards.

The Commuters Association representative stated he didn't know too much about load standards, but said he had noticed that many persons couldn't get seats even during the "summer slump."



HAPPY FACES and happy smiles are induced in everybody by the same things — good food, a good joke and a feeling of friendliness. This was the assumption the American Field Service in Lafayette went on when they invited several Japanese youths to be their guests at dinner and a tour recently. Contra Costa to Get 1½ Of 5 Transit Dist. Wards

A tentative division of the proposed two-county transit district into five wards, the units which will determine voting power, has given Contra Costa one full ward, and half of another one, it was learned after a meeting of officials Monday in Oakland.

Alameda County will get three wards and the other half, in a general agreement which the Contra Costa Board of Supervisors must pass judgment upon by next Tuesday.

That is the deadline when final agreement must be reached.

IT WAS ALSO revealed that the two-county transit district, proposed to supplement the nine-county transit sysem by ways and means and cost to be determined later, will have seven directors.

One will come from each ward, and two will be elected at large, assuring Alameda County three, and a chance of getting six of the seven.

Alameda County, with about 360,000 voters to be in the district, compared to Contra Costa's 130,000, formerly called for the November election to create the District, after eight cities in Contra Costa also send their agreement to vote.

The Walnut Creek city council, the only central county incorporated body, heard plans by Oakland City Attorney Donald Nesbit, two weeks ago, and delayed action due to a shortage of members present. Some councilmen expressed doubt, pending further discussion.

THE CONTRA COSTA Commuters Association also heard Nesbit a week earlier, but reserved opinion until a meeting to be held Tuesday.

In the commuters meeting, Marston Campbell a San Francisco attorney, spoke in opposition to the district.

Nesbit in favoring it, said that Contra Costa would bear only about two-fifths of the expense, since the cost would fall upon property owners on the basis of assessed valuation.

He added that the November vote would only create the district and elect directors, and a bond issue would have to be voted later, after the means of transportation, mono-rail, electric buses, or others, was decided.

THERE WILL BE no tax limit, because, "Where that's done they always shoot for the limit," he added.

Each ward in the two counties will contain about 95,000 to 110,000 voters, it was decided Monday.

Contra Costa Board Chairman H. L. Cummings said that these plans would have to go to the local supervisors and city officials before a firm commitment is made.

Aiding in the calculations was County Clerk Walter Paasch.

The split district would contain Richmond and El Cerrito in Contra Costa, and Berkeley and Albany in Alameda.

Higher Utility Values May Lower County Tax Rate

Tax news and good news are rarely the same, but this week it was learned that assessed valuations of utilities in Contra Costa County had jumped 16 per cent, rather than the anticipated 5 per cent, and that indicates an overall tax rate less than expected.

With a 1956-57 budget totaling $28,085,350, County Auditor Howard McNamer earlier said that the tax rate might have to be increased from $2.03 last year to $2.316, since the regular property assessment rolls, excepting utilities, had jumped only 3.8 per cent, instead of a hoped-for 10 per cent.

But utilities have expanded to a great extent.

The upshot is that the new tax rate may be about $2.28 per $100 assessed valuation. This is still a substantial increase from last year.

The utility rolls, prepared not by the county, but by the State Board of Equalization, total $147,520,520. Last year the figure was $126,867,380.

A final budget hearing will be held August 20, when any last-minute changes may be proposed.

Main reason for a record county budget this year are wage hikes, and bigger capital outlay.

The taxes do not raise the total budget, but just $14,610,900.

State and federal money will amount to $12,031,125, and there is $1,443,325 left in the county treasury.

Light Vote Passes Bonds By 68 Per Cent Majority

Voters Tuesday approved by a better than two to one margin the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District's appeal for an $8,900,000 bond issue for a long-range development program.

But only a sprinkling of voters, some 3846 out of a possible 35,000, turned up at the polls to vote in the plan for sewerage expansion and improvement.

These few, representing the district, passed by a vote of 2620 to 1226 the bond issue. This was more than the usually required two-thirds majority, but in this case only a simple majority was required for passage.

The county health officer had declared that improvement of sewer facilities was necessary to correct "serious health hazards now existing within the district."

DISTRICT MANAGER Gary Horstkotte said that the district will not launch into its building program until next April.

As outlined in the Brown and Caldwell engineering report, the bond issue is intended to kick off a building program which would serve an expected population for the district of 118,000 by 1960; 295,000 by 1975 and 398,000 by 1990.

The district currently serves an estimated 87,000 persons and includes the communities of Lafayette, Orinda, Moraga, Walnut Creek, Pleasant Hill, Pacheco and parts of San Ramon Valley, with the entire valley to be served in the future.

Some 11 per cent of eligible voters showed up at the polls, while in 1954 the count was 12 per cent.

OTHER PRECINCTS of the 11 to fail to give a two-thirds majority were the three Lafayette voting places.

Here is the vote by precincts:

Precinct	Total	Yes	No
1. P.H., Pacheco	328	259	69
2. Pleasant Hill	447	316	131
3. Pleasant Hill	354	187	167
4. Walnut Creek	607	424	183
5. Walnut Creek	480	354	126
6. Lafayette	262	169	93

School Board Approves Big Budget

Boy, Girl, 13 Rifle P.O. for Canceled Checks

Sharp sleuthing and a lucky coincidence have led to the confessions of a Lafayette boy and girl, both 13, that they rifled Lafayette Post Office boxes and made off with more than $200,000 in cancelled checks and other pieces of mail.

Scraps of film found while investigating the post office thefts, proved the same boy had also stolen some $300 in photographic goods from Dick Mathis' Camera and Stationary Shop last week.

THE SHERIFF'S office and postal inspectors joined forces in tracking down the missing bundles of cancelled checks, called "cash letters," which were headed for the First Western Bank of Lafayette, on June 13, when the bank reported that its daily shipment of checks had not arrived.

Between that time and July 21, the bank complained that six cash letters, containing some 2500 checks worth about $200,000, had not arrived through the mails.

At that time, bank manager Tom Latimer expressed concern that, although the cancelled checks were worthless, a tremendous amount of work would have to be done to trace them back to their original sources.

THE CHECKS WERE being relayed to the First Western Bank through the mails from the Federal Reserve Bank in San Francisco, the American Trust Bank of Oakland and the American Trust Bank of Walnut Creek.

Latimer expressed fear, however, that if thievery were involved in the mystery the culprits might obliterate the checks' endorsements.

"I hate to think that someone might erase the endorsements," he said. "In that case we'd have to pay twice."

HIS FEARS PROVED unfounded, happily, as the juvenile riflers apparently became frightened of their "coup," and, destroying some of the checks, left others on a vacant Lafayette lot.

This negligence proved to be their undoing.

According to the postal inspectors, the youths had access to the First Western and other post office boxes when they entered the post office lobby "usually on Saturday afternoons and holidays, when the lobby was open but no one else was around."

HAVING DISCOVERED that one of the boxes was able to be pulled out, they were able to reach through the vacant space and into neighboring boxes, one of which was the bank's, the authorities revealed.

Why did they make off with the worthless checks?

"It must have felt like currency to them, inside those large envelopes," a post office representative guessed.

A pair of Lafayette children playing on the vacant lot last week discovered two of the cash letter envelopes, containing about 600 checks. One of the children brought the bundles to his father, who immediately turned them over to the bank.

SEARCHING FOR CLUES of the culprits, postal inspectors scoured the lot and discovered scraps of film, which they retained as possible evidence.

Meanwhile, on the suspicion of the camera store owner Mathis, the 13-year-old boy had been picked up by the sheriff's office and had confessed to breaking in to the store.

"When we heard about the store robbery," the post office representative said, "we put two and two together and thought the boy might have disposed of the checks and the stolen film on the same lot.

The girl was not implicated in the camera store theft.

Commenting on the solved mystery, First Western Bank assistant manager Robert J. Stirling admitted that "We were baffled. We knew that no one stood to make any money on the checks."

Lady Home, $545 Gone

Articles worth approximately $545 were taken during a burglary at the home of Mrs. Patricia Cicero, 5 Pico Court.

She found a portable radio, movie camera, rifle, shotgun and wrist watch missing when she returned home after a short absence.

BELLY FLOPS or smooth dives were experienced by these youngsters as they took the plunge, but they all had blue ribbons in their eyes. The ribbons are to be won at the Valley Art Center's Junior Olympics August 19 at the Lafayette home of Harold Powell, where this shot was taken. Supervisors Show Little Interest in Pinball 'Ban'

The Board of Supervisors took little interest in a formal request made Tuesday by Sheriff Harry Brown that all pinball machines, not just multiple play, be banned in the county.

But they did act on Brown's other request, ordering District Attorney Francis Collins to prepare an ordinaance regulating and licensing the operations of card rooms in the unincorporated areas.

The more stringent measure was noted only for a moment and then passed over with a reported comment by Chairman H. L. Cummings that it will later be given further "consideration."

SUPERVISOR Ray Taylor later said that discussions will definitely be held with Brown concerning banning pinballs.

At the meeting, Brown commented that though his men have picked up many multiple play machines in the county in the past, the only effective police measure would be by outlawing them all.

His earlier statement to the Supervisors said in part, ". . . it is obvious that efficient law enforcement of legal operation of pinball machines, so that they are not used as a gambling device, is impossible."

Brown stated that his reason for wanting both measures stemmed from a lack of manpower in his department. New laws would make enforcement easier, he said.

A CARDROOM ordinance would make it easier to make some 30 operators in the county comply with the laws by threatening loss of license.

Definite closing hours would keep "big games" in Vallejo and Emeryville from moving into Contra Costa at 2 a.m., he also stated.

Collins said that he would compose the ordinance in general terms and submit it later on for specific wording. Brown offered that it should require operators to submit the backgrounds of dealers for investigation.

It was indicated that the Board of Supervisors would review requests for licenses, thus allowing residents to have a say in the location of card rooms in their neighborhoods.

Happy It's Nice? Weatherman Too

"There's fair weather ahead," shouted the weatherman with glee at the end of this delightful weather-week.

He didn't neglect to mention, patting himself on the back, that the skies all week were blue, the climes warm but mild and that a fine summer was in progress.

"No rain this weather-year, either," he added, dislocating his shoulder with too hard a pat.

Top temperature was a 90, recorded last Tuesday, he reported, flinching.

Here's what his meter read:

State Moves to Ease Auto Jams On Mt. Diablo

State highway engineers are currently making surveys of Mt. Diablo Boulevard in an effort to ease the traffic difficulties that have arisen from the closing of Thomson Road.

In reply to the many complaints that Happy Valley motorists were finding it no soft touch to turn onto the boulevard since the Thomson Road traffic signal was made inaccessible, state officials are investigating the possibility of widening that portion of Mt. Diablo to allow for a center "refuge" lane that would facilitate turning onto the boulevard.

Motorists are currently using Lower Happy Valley Road, where there is no traffic signal, as the access onto Mt. Diablo.

The major question in the state's move seems to be whether the boulevard's shoulders are stable enough to be used in the expansion.

"If the situation appears favorable," stated district engineer L. A. Weymouth, "I imagine the work will be done very soon."

Groups of Happy Valley residents, headed by George Walker, president of the Lafayette Improvement Association, had last week beseeched the state to consider installation of traffic signals at the intersection of Lower Happy Valley Road and Mt. Diablo Boulevard.

Weymouth, however, feels that the widened street would much more effectively untangle the jam.

"This idea is much better," he said, "as the traffic lights could be a source of congestion themselves.

"We should have a report on conditions by the first of next week," he offered.

Walker was agreeable to the idea "as long as something is done soon," he said.

Tunnel Wire for Radio Reception Asked by Chamber

The Orinda Chamber of Commerce voted Tuesday to send a letter to the State Division of Highways requesting a wire through the Broadway Tunnel that would allow radio reception in the tunnel.

At the chamber's noon luncheon meeting at Casa Orinda, member John Loop suggested to the chamber that such a wire would be valuable for civil defense in case of an emergency.

He added that radio reception in the tunnel was necessary to law enforcement vehicles and would be accomodating to commuters who are kept company by their car radios on their way home.

AFTER A LENGTHY discussion on the subject, the chamber voted to send the request to the highway authorities.

Chamber President Merle Brown said he would also speak to Assemblyman Donald D. Doyle on the matter.

The tunnel came in for more criticism at the meeting when Fred T. Woods discussed the poor lighting afforded in the tunnel. The chamber, however, took no action on this matter.

LAURA MALLARY, Orinda postmaster, reported that the post office had investigated the possibility of initiating foot delivery in the Orinda business district.

But, she explained, the postal authorities had rejected the proposal because, they claimed, many firms prefered to pick up their mail at the post office with each mail delivery.

Paul Vashell, chairman of the chamber's Christmas tree planting program, informed members that the circle the chamber had built in the Orinda Crossroads area for the purpose of planting trees would soon be filled with 28 yards of soil.

PRESIDENT BROWN, refering to the proposed clean-up program for the Orinda business district, stated that the membership should consider no committments of expenditures of chamber funds until the new dues are in.

When the treasury is sufficient-clean-up project would be considered.

A touch of sentiment was added to the meeting when the chamber members presented an initialed briefcase to immediate past president Ned deLaveaga.

FORMATION OF A new Junior Chamber of Commerce in Orinda was another point of discussion at the meeting. President Brown discussed the proposed new organization and announced that Jim Dana, one of its representatives, would speak at the next chamber meeting August 21.

Another speaker expected at the next meeting is a spokesman of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company, who will discuss installation of the new PT&T building in Orinda.

Trustees Also Ask State for Aid in Building

On the tail end of a School District Board of Trustees vote to approve the new $841,211 budget which calls for a $1.81 tax levy, the trustees accepted plans and specifications for construction of three classrooms and a multi-purpose room at Sleepy Hollow School and six classrooms at Pine Grove.

THE ACTION CAME about at a board meeting Monday night, which served a double function as a public hearing on the 1956-57 budget.

The district has already filed applications for state aid funds for the new rooms.

With School Superintendent Joseph L. Sheaff explaining the new budget, it was revealed that the new school district tax levy will cost taxpayers some 70 cents more per $100 assessed valuation than last year.

IN DISCUSSING the tremendous boost in this year's budget, Sheaff commented that schools are now larger, and require more personnel and more equipment.

Contributions to the heavier tax burden are severel new expenses that have been imposed this year, the superintendent pointed out. Included among these is a new retirement annuity fund for teachers and administrators and a repayment of state school building apportionment of $27,000.

Largest single item on the budget, he revealed, is the $527,710 allocated for instruction. This compares to the $434,681 allotted for the same purpose last year.

Other major budget items approved by the board were:

1. Administration, $19,100.
2. Operation of School Plant, $64,170.
3. Maintenance of School Plant $24,900.
4. Fixed Charges, $25,500.
5. Transportation of pupils, $56,400.
6. Capital outlay, $$49,180.

According to Sheaff the budget also calls for up to $331,502 in bonds, to be used in the district's building fund.

Of this total, he said, the year is beginning with $131,502 already in the fund, with up to $200,000 of bonds to be sold.

SOME $250,000 is to be borrowed from the State School Building Fund this year to supplement the building income, while $26,300 is expected to be spent on the new cafeteria at the Pine Grove School.

In other business taken up at the meeting, Sheaff announced that annexation proceedings with the Moraga School District, whereby each district would annex areas from the other, have hit a snag.

Tax inequities in the two areas and interference with state aid allocations caused the board to request an interdistrict agreement with Moraga such as has been followed in the past for educating children from other districts.

TWO REQUESTS for school bus service were denied by the board. The first from residents in Altarinda was turned down due to road conditions in the area.

The second came from residents of Bear Creek Road, whose six or seven children are in the Briones School District.

The successful application to the Boundaries Commission by Mrs. Elizabeth W. Partridge to start annexation proceedings to annex to the Orinda School District may eventually necessitate construction of a new school plant in the Bear Creek-San Pablo Dam area, Sheaff indicated.

The trustees announced bids on landscaping, paving and grading on Pine Grove School grounds will be opened at 4 p.m., August 21.

Joe Duffel Wins Company Post

Joseph A. Duffel, 72 Moraga Highway, Orinda, was installed as vice president of the Bay Area Mortgage Association Tuesday in San Francisco.

The Bay Area Mortgage Association is an organization of over 100 young men in the mortgage loan industry throughout the San Francisco Bay Area.

Duffel is associated with George Dodge in the Morinda Corporation in Orinda. He is a member of the Orinda Rotary Club and the Orinda Chamber of Commerce.

Hagstrom Hearing Aug. 22; Plan Fall Building Start

Application of Hagstrom Food Stores, Inc., for a variance land use permit for the 3.62-acre parcel it has leased from John F. and Virginia H. Snow in the Planned Neighborhood Business District, just south of Orinda Village, is scheduled for hearing before the County Board of Adjustment in Martinez at 7:30 p.m. August 22.

George T. Kern of the Oakland architectural firm of Alvin Fingado and George T. Kern, designers of the contemplated $300,000 project of a supermarket and several smaller stores, said yesterday it is hoped that construction can be started by fall on the first wing, for a large Hagstrom food market.

"CONSTRUCTION would probably take about four or five months, and the supermarket could be open for business early in 1957," Kern said.

"Then, by a year from this fall, construction could start on the second wing, where smaller stores would be operated by lessees. Contemplated for this second wing are units such as a variety store, a hardware store and a drug store."

Kern said the entire development would include about 27,000 square feet of floor space in the building units.

THE HAGSTROM FIRM several months ago leased the parcel from the Snows for 35 years. Although the current application is signed for the company by Calvin Hagstrom, sales manager, the names of John F. and Virginia H. Snow, owners of the land, are also in the application.

Kern reported that he and Calvin Hagstrom conferred Monday night at Kern's office with members of the Orinda Association's planning committee, including the committee chairman, James Hupp, regarding the firm's plans.

Kern and H. Russell Griffith, principal county planner, pointed out that the variance requested by the Hagstrom firm would place the building farther back from Orinda Highway than the building site area shown on the map of the Planned Neighborhood Business Ordinance.

THE MAP, they explained, shows building sites at a corner of Orinda Highway.

The company wants to move the building site westward toward the creek, so that it will be near the future San Pablo Dam Road by-pass and so that a corner of the structure would be approximately 60 feet from Orinda Highway, at the nearest point. The building would face Orinda Highway.

The section now designated on the map as building site would be used for parking area.

"THE ORDINANCE," Kern said, "provides that building space must not exceed one-fourth of the area of a site and that the ratio of parking area to store floor space must be 2½ to 1. Our plans provide for even smaller building space and a greater proportion of parking area.

"The variance we request would change the building site and would combine the three building sites into a single site.

"The building is anticipated as being designed with a low patch roof with wide spreading eaves, in conformity with the Orinda community and the Planned Neighborhood Business District."

Langridge Home From Venezuela

Charles Langridge, fire commissioner of the Orinda Fire Department, reports that he had a wonderful time working in Maracaibo, Venezuela, but is nevertheless "glad to be home."

The commissioner, who is employed by Standard Oil Company of California as a cost accountant, returned to his home at 670 Moraga Highway recently after two and a half months in the South American city.

Langridge was sent to Maracaibo by Standard to help establish a new asphalt refinery for the Richmond Exploration Company, which is a subsidiary of Standard. He left by plane on May 14.

One of the most interesting sights he took in, Langridge claims, was the vast Lake Maracaibo, upon which some 7,000 oil derricks are operating, their tops sticking above the lake's surface "like trees."

"I wouldn't have believed it i I hadn't seen it," was Langridge's comment.

Military Brothers Hold Family Reunion

Maj. Gen. and Mrs. William E. Lynd of 41 Claremont Avenue have had as house guests recently the general's brother, Col. Roy F. and Mrs. Lynd of Staunton, Va.

A family reunion was held when General and Mrs. Lynd's two sons, William F. Lynd of San Jose and John S. Lynd of Palo Alto, with their wives and children, were dinner guests at the family home in Orinda.

Col. and Mrs. Lynd later left for Monterey to visit their son, Capt. Robert F. Lynd, his wife Nancy and their month-old daughter.

Nancy is the daughter of General Mudgett, commanding Fort Ord, where Robert is stationed as his aide.

YOUNG TRUMPET PRODIGY Mario Guarneri is blooming as one of the top musical prospects in the area. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Guarneri is holding true to his family's musical tradition, and will exhibit his talent this Sunday as a soloist with the concert band at the Golden Gate Park concert in San Francisco.

Rev. Anderson To Preach In Oregon

The Rev. Edward R. Andersen, organizing pastor of the Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church in Orinda and new pastor of the Emmaus Lutheran Church in Eugene, Ore., has arrived in Eugene with his wife and daughter.

Shepherd of the Valley Church, which now has 248 baptized members, was organized in November of 1953 by Pastor Andersen.

The original survey work was started in 1952 while Pastor Andersen was a senior student at the Pacific Lutheran Seminary in Berkeley.

His ordination into the Evangelical Lutheran Synod of the Pacific Southwest took place in May of 1953.

Pastor Andersen completed two years of seminary training at Luther Seminary in St. Paul, Minn., and received his Bachelor of Arts degree from Dana College in Blair, Neb.

After leaving his home church, the Emmaus Lutheran Church in Racine, Wis., a member of the United Evangelical Lutheran Church, Mr. Andersen spent 15 years in business.

Can Company Officer Files Damage Suit

Hamilton C. Davis, president of the Walnut Creek Canning Company, and resident of Piedmont, filed suit this week for $49,455 damages, alleging that the county is to blame for a plane engine failure which caused him to crash-land with his wife in Suisun Bay last January.

The couple had taken off with Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Gordon of Oakland from Buchanan Field, and the motor stopped minutes later.

City Petition Drive Proceeds; More Help Needed

Circulation and signing of petitions asking that the County Board of Supervisors schedule an election on incorporation of Orinda are proceeding "satisfactorily," Chairman Paul Pollaczek of the Orinda Association's incorporation committee stated yesterday.

"About 2000 signatures have been obtained so far," he reported.

Admitting that vacations have somewhat slowed down the previously anticipated pace of the petition drive, Pollaczek said:

"I FEEL MUCH encouraged, in spite of organizational difficulties, and I am confident the petition drive will be completed by September 1."

In the absence of Ted Sanford, petition drive chairman, and F. A. Sawyer, co-chairman of the incorporation committee, both of whom are away on vacation, Ted May is acting chairman of the petition drive.

He and Pollaczek, together with Dick Bartle of the incorporation committee, stressed the need for additional volunteers to circulate petitions.

THEY URGED persons able to devote some time to petition circulation to phone May at CL 4-3333.

About 100 persons are now circulating petitions, Pollaczek said. "We need more," he added.

Because of the shortage of volunteers and because of family vacations, some areas of Orinda have not yet been covered in the drive, while other areas have been only partially covered, he stated.

REQUIRED ON the petitions are the signatures of at least 25 per cent of the landowners of the area, who must own enough land to account for at least 25 per cent of the assessed valuation of the land in the proposed city.

"This means," Pollaczek pointed out, "that in order to make absolutely sure we have enough valid signatures, we should obtain the signatures of 40 to 50 per cent of the people of Orinda.

"Signing of the petition does not mean that the signer is necessarily in favor of incorporation. It merely means that the signer wants the question of incorporation put up to an official vote of the people."

Bartle explained that after the petitions are filed with the county, the Board of Supervisors has 30 days in which to check the petitions. Then the supervisors hold a hearing or hearings, after which an election is scheduled.

In order to get on the 1957-58 county tax rolls, the new city must be formed by February, 1957, he said.

Navy Cmdr. Underway Aboard Submarine

Commander Alex M. McClain, USNR, 75 Stanton Avenue, is aboard the submarine tender USS Sperry (AS 12) for a reserve cruise which began July 30.

Administrative flagship of Submarine Squadron Three, based at San Diego, Calif., the Sperry is a 15,000 ton floating repair and supply ship presently operating in fleet exercises.

While aboard the Sperry, McLain participated in the different drills and exercises as part o the underway training.

Crash Kills 5 from Area

Leslie N. Simonsen, 1044 Esther Drive, Pleasant Hill, was killed yesterday in an auto-truck crash near Grants Pass, Oregon.

Four other persons were killed and three more injured when their Alaska-bound station wagon collided with a freight two miles south of Grants Pass.

The dead according to the Josephine County Coroner's office are Robert Hoselton, 14, 2735 Westgate Avenue, Concord; David Chamberlane Binkley, of Berkeley; John DuBois, 15, 106 York Avenue, Concord; Robert Francis Jaequemin, San Pablo.

Injured were Gerald Clough, 6, 2441 Upland Drive, Concord; Sonny Trepagnier, 156, 3018 Chrisland Court, Concord; Jim Webster, 2158 Athene Drive, Concord.

The injured were listed in fair condition at the county hospital in Grants Pass.

Simonsen was an executive o the Mt. Diablo Boy Scout District.

A scout executive said that Simonsen had been executive in Berkeley for five years. The trip to Alaska was arranged on a personal basis and not as a Boy Scout excursion, he said.

Through the efforts of the Thrift Shop, 1547 East Street, Walnut Creek, and the support of its customers, another sizeable cash contribution has been made to the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center for its building fund, it was announced.

The new plant is now under construction on Country Club Road, and will be ready for occupancy in September.

The Therapy Thrift Shop endeavors to have good quality and timely merchandise available each week on Thursday, Friday and Saturday. This week, the Shop will feature articles to accompany customers on their vacations.

A long list of vacation accessories includes the following equipment; flash lights, mess kits, camp cooking utensils and a life jacket.

Suitable clothes include sweaters and suede jackets, bathing suits, slacks, riding pants and boots. Many other items of summer apparel and equipment are displayed.

To help customers in the Shop on today are Mesdames E. P. Laws, Irving Kraemer and C. Diggle will be present, and tommorrow Junior Linnet members will staff the Shop.

Walden Residents Sue County for Flood Damage

Charging negligence in building and maintaining a sewer main which crossed the old Walden bridge, 56 residents of Walden have filed damage suits totaling $333,048.

Defendants are the Contra Costa County Flood Control District, and the County Sanitary District.

The bridge collapsed, blocking the Walnut Creek channel, causing water to flood their lands during the December floods, petitioners stated.

Reported heavily hit were residents of Walden Way and Cherry Lane.

The claims ranged from $300 to $12,000. Attorney in the matter is Harold L. Strom of Oakland.

Similar complaints were earlier passed over by the Board of Supervisors and boards of directors in each district.

Families Report on Disneyland Stays

Two Orinda families visited Disneyland recently and report "wonderful" stays.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Denham, 5 Southwood Drive, and the Conway Sears' 5 Acacia Drive, commented that the famous playland was "fabulous" and provided a "most enjoyable stay."

Indian Monkey Can't Compete With Big Pooch

It's been a tough life for "Gungi" a little Indian monkey, despite good treatment by the R. A. Butler family of 700 Bancroft Road, Walnut Creek.

Monkeys just aren't the fad, and he can't compete with man's best friend.

With the arrival of "Brenda" a German weimaramer, "Gungi" has been offered for sale by the Butlers.

The little fellow probably began to suspect that this wasn't the promised land for him, when rock-throwing boys caused his first owner, a sea captain who brought him over from India to sell Gungi to the Butlers.

"We like him all right, but we've been wanting a dog and there just isn't enough room for all," commented Mr. Butler, speaking also for his sons, Donald ,19, and Edwin, 14.

Does anyone really prefer monkeys? Gungi is beginning to doubt it.

Incidentally, Mr Butler's classified ad, offering the unusual pet is in this edition. Maybe you can provide the last paragraph, and happy ending for this story!

Toastmasters Planning Steak Barbecue Event

Diablo Toastmasters Club 598, Walnut Creek, will hold a special steak barbecue outing at Turtle Rock Ranch August 30, it was announced today by Bill Williamson, president.

The social hour wil be at 6:30 p.m., with regular program at 7.

The seasonal program as planned will provide instruction and training in outdoor public speaking.

Program participants yesterday at the Los Palmas Hotel were Frank Curtis of Orinda, Table Topics; Ben Young, Toastmaster; Don Mitchell, master evaluator; Andy Johns, timekeeper, and Pat Hagerty, grammar.

Speech competition was between Phil Canville, Ralph Neiger, John Phillips and Douglas McGowan.

Trophy honors in speech competition for achievement in impromptu speech went to Glenn Vergne of Concord, and prepared speech making by Arnold Nelson, at a recent meeting.

Nelson spoke on "Voice of the Speaker" in winning on his Masterpiece assignment, the twelfth and final step in the basic training manual. Bergne spoke for 60 seconds on the ethics of salesmanship.

Safety Council Stages Meeting

A meeting of the Contra Costa Safety Council represented by Al Brennan and residents headed by Ted Winslow was held Wednesday, August 1 at the home of Tom Shreve.

Purpose of the meeting was to discuss the Safety Council and its part in Pleasant Hill.

Taking part in the meeting were Rube Friedrich, president of the Pleasant Hill Lions Club; John Scaglione, vice president of the safety council, John Lubbers, representing the Chamber of Commerce, and Mrs. WaWneta DeWeerd, president of the Crest View Junior Woman's Club.

Drive Under Way to Form New Orinda JayCee Group

Orinda may have a new Junior Chamber of Commerce, if current plans of the Lafayette-Orinda JayCees see light.

The new organization is contemplated, according to Clarke L. Coldren, chairman of the Extension Committee of the present chapter, "because Orinda is becoming a community of unique interests."

IT WOULD BE formed, Coldren reported, as an entirely separate organization, and the current joint chapter would become the Lafayette Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Sponsored by the Lafayette-Orinda branch, the new group is expected to be put on its feet on August 21, when an organizational meeting will be held at the home of Horton Hill, 114 Overhill Drive, Orinda. The meeting is scheduled for 8 p.m.

COLDREN EXTENDED an invitation to any man between the ages of 21 and 35 in the Orinda area to attend the meeting. He felt that a temporary chairman, by-laws and program committees for the embryonic group would be appointed.

Coldren believed that the organization was necessary in Orinda because "there isn't any service club outlet there exclusively for young men.

"Both Lafayette and Orinda have community projects under way," he said, "which require the full-time services of the organization."

In describing the projects, he cited the Orinda library drive and the Lafayette Community Center as examples.

HE ALSO FELT that both young men and the community would benefit from formation of a new JayCee in Orinda.

"The Junior Chamber of Commerce has two purposes in mind," he claimed. "The first is community service. The second is to give young men a chance to better themselves through programs and projects."

He added that the leadership gained by young men in JayCee activities might not be accomplished in their normal business activities.

AS HEAD OF the Lafayette-Orinda Extension Committee Coldren is heading organization of the new chapter. He is assisted by Jim Dana and Bob Hickey, other members of the committee.

In other business, the Lafayette-Orinda JayCee has announced that it will operate one or two booths at the Walnut Festival in Walnut Creek in September. It will also be a co-sponsor of the October Melodrama for the benefit of the Lafayette Community Center. The show will be on the nights of October 5, 6, 12 and 13.

At its annual membership breakfast October 13, the JayCee will have as guest speaker Izzy Gold, president of the State Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Area Active at GOP State Meet, Doyle Vice-Chairman

Central Contra Costans played a prominent part at the biennial Republican State Convention and Republican State Central Committee meeting in Sacramento last weekend.

Assemblyman Donald Doyle of the 10th Assembly District, a Lafayette resident, was elected vice-chairman of the State Central Committee at the meeting of the committee Sunday.

AMONG THOSE present with Assemblyman and Mrs. Doyle at the state convention Saturday and the Central Committee meeting Sunday were:

From Orinda — Lindsey Spight, chairman of the Contra Costa County Republican United Finance Committee; Mrs. Spight; Donald Krotz; Mrs. Krotz, secretary of the County Republican United Finance Committee; Mrs. Wayne Bentley; Mrs. Thomas Barrows, member of the County Central Committee.

From Lafayette — Jack Pedder, candidate for state senator; Robert Pedder.

From Walnut Creek — Mrs. Kenneth Chandler.

Alphonzo E. Bell Jr. of Los Angeles was elected chairman of the State Central Committee.

BOTH BELL AND Doyle had the backing of Gov. Goodwin J. Knight and were elected without opposition.

The state convention and the Central Committee both voted support of President Eisenhower and Vice-President Richard Nixon as a G.O.P. ticket.

Delegates to the state convention, representing more than 700 California party leaders, asked California's 70 delegates to the Republican National Convention —which will open August 20 in San Francisco — to give "all-out support" to Eisenhower and Nixon.

U. S. Senator William F. Knowland told the state convention that "Republicans should be prepared to unite their forces, stand shoulder to shoulder, and give overwhelming renomination and I believe overwhelming reelection to the ticket of Ike and Nixon."

PRELIMINARY sessions at Sacramento included a business meeting of directors of the California Republican Assembly last Friday afternoon and a dinner meeting of that group and the county chairmen's unit of the State Central Committee Friday night.

The California Republican Assembly directors reaffirmed their support of Nixon.

Ben Mallary on Road to Recovery

On his way to recovery from an abdominal operation is Ben Mallary, 33 Overhill Road, who is recuperating following a month-long stay in the Kaiser Foundation Hospital in Oakland.

Mallary, a management consultant in Berkeley, returned home Monday and expects to be back on the job in "a couple o weeks."

He is the husband of Orinda's postmaster, Mrs. Laura Mallary.

Hawaii Travelers Home Following Tour

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Twining, 58 Hacienda Circle, and their children, Janice and Kenny, have returned from the Hawaiian Islands where they spent three weeks with the coconut palms, the island breezes and many Orindans and ex-Orindans who had the same idea about where to spend a delightful vacation.

The Twinings visited the Island of Oahu for nine days, then flew to Kauai, where they spent several days in a resort on the lagoon in the coco palm groves for which Kauai is famous.

CREATING A GOP atmosphere at the Dollar Ranch are Mrs. Ruth Young of Walnut Creek, County Precinct chairman, kneeling, Mrs. James Irwin, Orinda, a member of the Republican Central Committee and Mrs. David Honegger of Oakley, a member of the committee and president of the Oakley area Women's Republican Club. These and other women in the area are helping to greet the convention representatives at the "Roundup of Republicans."

A HEARTY SMILE and a warm welcome for visiting Republican celebrities are in the offing from Ritchie Smith, chairman of the pre-convention GOP Roundup committee, when the guests attend an August 19 party at the Dollar Ranch. With the convention opening the following day, such national figures as Minority Leader Joe Martin and Howard Pyle have accepted invitations to the garden reception.

GOP Celebrities to Attend Aug. 19 Convention Party

Republican women throughout Contra Costa County have a choice assignment in the festivities highlighting the Republican National Convention.

They are working with other Republican groups in this county as well as with voltunteers throughout northern California in planning a garden reception for key state and national Republican officials the day before the convention opens.

A Western theme and name, "Roundup of Republicans," have been chosen for the gala occasion at the R. Stanley Dollar ranch in the Saranap Valley near Walnut Creek from 2 to 6 p.m., Sunday, August 19.

This is to be the only major gathering during the convention in which the general public will have an opportunity to chat informally with visiting national and state Republican leaders.

Before official invitations had arrived in Washington, a number of world-famed personalities including Minority Leader Joe Martin and Howard Pyle, administrative assistant to President Eisenhower, had accepted verbal invitations to attend the Contra Costa party.

Honorary hosts at the affair will be Governor Goodwin Knight, Senator William Knowland and Senator Thomas Kuchel, while the honorary chairmen are Rep. John F. Baldwin of Martinz and Tenth District Assemblyman Donald D. Doyle of Lafayette.

Among Republican women playing a major part in the event are Mrs. Thomas N. Barrows, vice president of California Federation of Republican Women, northern division, as vice chairman, and Mrs. Donald Krotz, 44 Monte Vista, Orinda, who heads ticket sales.

Mrs. James E. Irwin Jr., former secretary of the State Young Republicans, is hospitality chairman. Mrs. Stanley Koller of Crockett, Mrs. Dwight Chapman and Mrs. Jay Duthie, of Orinda, serve with W. D. McNevin of Lafayette, on the committee which will escort distinguished visitors to the Dollar Ranch.

Republican Women Club presidents working on varied assignments for the party are Mrs. Howard Richman, Central Contra Costa County; Mrs. Raymond Tolles, Lafayette; Mrs. Donald Krotz, Orinda; Mrs. Arthur King, Pleasant Hill, and Mrs. Frank Young, Walnut Creek.

Mrs. Young has accepted chairmanship of the GOP souvenir sales booth.

A THING OF THE PAST are these signs which slowed up commuter traffic and made driving just plain difficult near Pleasant Hill Road and Mt. Diablo Boulevard. With the underpass open to traffic a serious bottle neck has been eliminated. The entire interchange project is slated for completion in November.

Acalanes District Tax Budget Calls For $1.60 Rate

Acalanes High School District trustees on August 1, approved a 1956-57 budget including expenditures, transfers and balance of $1,723,720.

Of this, $1,267,150 will be used for operational purposes.

The new budget will result in a tax rate of approximately $1.60, pending final assessed valuation reports.

According to district officials the rise in the rate from the present tax of $1.26 is due to a twenty-three per cent rise in student enrollment for 1956-57; the loss of state aid because of recent reassessments ordered by the State Board of Equalization; and salary increases for personnel.

Trustees also approved a revision of written board policies; awarded a contract of $2925 to O. C. Jones Company of Berkeley for surfacing the track at Las Lomas, and a contract to Anchor Post Products of South San Francisco of $8199 for fencing in the Las Lomas athletic area.

Trustees discussed general discipline practices within the district with principals Leland Russell of Las Lomas, Stanley Walgren of Acalanes, and James Lewis of Miramonte High School.

Board members expressed satisfaction with the administration of student conduct and the absence of serious campus problems.

Local Man Is Engaged to Martinez Girl

The engagement of Miss Mary Ann Slibowski of Martinez to Sam G. Indelicato of Walnut Creek, was announced recently at the home of the girl's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Slibowski of 1302 Chestnut Street.

The young couple plan to marry on April 27.

Parents of the prospective groom are Mr. and Mrs. Michael Indelicato of 21 Bradley Avenue, Walnut Creek.

Mary Ann graduated from Alhambra High Schol in 1955 and is employed at the Bank of America in Pleasant Hill.

Art Show Will Grace Annual Walnut Festival

The Walnut Festival Committee and the Diablo Art Association will again present to the attendants of the annual celebration an art show, September 20.

This year the artists will have the use of the small room in the Recreation Hall.

The display will include paintings, ceramics, sculpture, jewelry and mobiles. As in past Diablo Art Association gallery shows there will be a popular vote.

Mrs. Katy Madsen, Walnut Creek, exhibit chairman said that any persons wishing to enter work in the show and who are not members of the Diablo Art Association may obtain memberships with full privileges to exhibit in this show with the organization.

For further information call YE 3-3835.

Kasten Show is Open to Public At Art Center

Paintings and prints by Karl Kasten, Lafayette resident and member of the art department staff at the University of California, are on exhibit in the Valley Art Center Gallery, 3420 Mt. Diablo Blvd., Lafayette.

The show will be open to the public Tuesday through Friday from 11 to 3, during the month of August.

Kasten is one of the most widely recognized of the California abstract-expressionist group, and has been represented in many local, national and international shows, and received many prizes.

Tightening Of Resident Zones Heard

Proposed changes in the county zoning ordinances which would generally "tighten up" requirements for builders on any of the six types of unincorporated residential zones were considered by the County Planning Commission Tuesday, and it was indicated that further hearings will be held.

Restrictions on lodges, clubs, the types of horse stables, small animal hubandry and nursery operations were to be increased, and land use permits would be required for schools to locate in residential zones.

IT WAS PROPOSED that in residential agricultural zones, minimum half acre, that lot widths be increased from 100 to 120 feet, and sideyards totals from 35 to 40 feet.

In the suburban or one-acre zone, the widths would be 140 foot minimums, rather than 120, and sideyards totals 45 instead of 40 feet.

Another provision was that. there, the minimum lot size would be 40,000 square feet, rather than one full acre.

The presentations were made by Anthony DeJesus, member of the planning staff.

ANOTHER amendment which would limit the ownership of dogs to three in each residential area, was opposed by Jeff Greer, a resident of Pleasant Hill and member of three county dog owner groups.

Greer stated that most dog nuisance cases stem from casual owners, and not dog fanciers, who take better care of their animals.

Any such amendment, he said, would force true dog lovers to move to less desirable neighborhoods.

The limit would not apply to puppies, under the age of three months.

'The Rainmaker' Draws Applause, Not Dark Clouds

By SHERMAN PEARL

When "The Rainmaker" appeared on the stage of the Las Lomas High School auditorium last weekend, he didn't bring a single drop of moisture.

Instead, what precipitated was a fine example of little theater ability and the warm appreciation of a responsive audience.

The three-act play, staged by the Lafayette Playshop, moved with the great dexterity of the actors and author N. Richard Nash through the plight of the Curry family in its desperate search for both water and a contented life.

With the fine rustic settings of George B. Becker as the background, director Lloyd Sisler handled with exceptional facility the presentation of the conflicting personalities of the members of the family—personalities shaken to their roots by the appearance of a pseudo-mystic who brings them not rain but light.

Especially outstanding were the two lead players, Charles Bosley as Starbuck, the "rainmaker," and Diane Davis as Lizzie Curry, the plain girl who at last finds beauty in herself.

Starbuck, the dreamer, doesn't "find" himself in the play, but Bosley was able to put his finger right on the character.

Lizzie's brothers, Noah and Jim, sparkle in their contrast, as portrayed by Art Lewicki and Bob Loorz. Another fine performance was rendered by Don Edwards as the embittered deputy sheriff, whose shell is finally cracked by Lizzie's disarming quality.

Also carrying their parts well were Lloyd Holton as the father and Sherman Coakley as the sheriff.

If Starbusk was unable to bring any rain, it was probably because the show moved too smoothly for dark clouds to accumulate.

This is your community. Help make it a better place to live in.

Search for V.A. Hospital Site Narrowed to 6

Veterans Administration officials have narrowed down to six the number of possible sites in Contra Costa and Alameda where an $8 million hospital may be built, serving the entire East Bay Area.

One of those sites is definitely on the John Pereira Ranch just off the Arnold Industrial Highway, and Martinez councilmen on learning this, hastened last week to better its chances.

They passed a resolution which would extend the city water and sewer lines without cost to the government except connection charges.

THIS WOULD involve extending a 10-inch water line about 1800 feet and a proposed 12-inch line about 4800 feet to the property.

The hospital officials have stated that they want about 30 acres for the construction of the hospital, which is to have about 750 beds, and a $4 million payroll.

The Martinez Council met with Sam Franks, manager of the present V.A. Hospital, located in the old Oakland Hotel, and other representatives, two of them from Washington, D.C.

They were told that there were six possible sites, and the Pereira property is one of them.

The V.A. men, including Col. R. M. Edgar, assistant administrator for construction, also visited Walnut Creek and other areas last month.

THEY WERE shown around Walnut Creek, and expressed their thanks for the reception.

But councilmen generally felt that there is no suitable spot in the city for such a hospital and its facilities.

No indication was given, on Edgar's departure, that a place in Walnut Creek had been singled out as a possibility.

THE SEARCH FOR a site about Walnut Creek and to the north began after residents of Orinda objected strongly against the location of the hospital near Miramonte High School.

When built, the new structure will replace the present hospital in the old Oakland Hotel, recently declared obsolete.

The Orinda site, original choice of the V.A., has not been officially dropped, but local people have been told that the V.A. will not go where it is not wanted.

A final single choice will be announced within 60 days, Franks has said.

Realtors Don Wildwest Robe Wednesday

In the conquering spirit of the Old West, the Contra Costra Real Estate Board will hold its annual barbecue, with boots and saddles, Wednesday at Chubby Humble's in Clayton.

Each person will receive a straw hat and bandanna on arrival, and will be expected to have the air of a veteran cowpuncher, according to Wayne Bailey, Board secretary.

Arrangements are being made by Bill Hayward, appointed chairman.

If for any reason you lose the gas cap on your car, be sure it is replaced with the correct type cap, cautions the California State Automobile Association. A vented gasoline tank cap is necessary to insure proper "breathing."

Republicans Getting Ready For Big August 19 Rally

Contra Costa County Republicans on August 19 will hold their first big rally preceding the National Republican Convention, James Moriarty, chairman of the county's Republican Central Committee disclosed today.

The event will be a reception staged at the 2200-acre ranch of Mr. and Mrs. R. Stanley Dollar in Saranap Valley near Walnut Creek, from 2 to 6 p.m.

FEATURING a Western theme, and title, "Roundup of Republicans," the rally has a dual purpose, Moriarty said. It will give them an opportunity to spend an afternoon in a lovely California setting and the general public a chance to greet nationally-famed personalities.

"Although this started originally as a fund-raiser it promises to be a great deal more than that in terms of being a friendly gathering of visiting Republicans from all over he country and as a rallying point for the workers in our area," Ritchie Smith, general chairman said.

He and vice chairman, Mrs. Thomas Barrows, vice president of California Federation of Republican Women, Northern Division, advised persons who plan to attend to call ticket sales chairmen in their communities this week.

Some 2000 tickets were ordered by Republican groups in other counties before the tickets were off the printing press.

REPUBLICANS throughout Northern California are participating in ticket sales.

Prices are $5 per person. All proceeds will go toward the reelection of the Eisenhower Administration.

Invitations are in the mail to all Cabinet officers, President Eisenhower's assistants, Republican Senators, Republican Governors, State Administrative officers and Republican Congressmen.

"We anticipate that many northern Californians will prefer to spend an afternoon at this informal rally instead of straining for a glimpse of visiting Republican leaders at the convention," Spight said.

TICKETS may be obtained by telephoning the following chairmen in these communities:

Orinda, Mrs. Donald Krotz, CLifford 4-2045 and Karl Rigor, CLifford 4-5759; Pleasant Hill, Mrs. Arthur King, YE 4-6891 or Jack Gillan, YE 5-5825.

San Ramon Valley, Mrs. Mac D. Osborn, VErnon 7-4140; and Walnut Creek, Mrs. Harmon Howard, YE 5-5116, Mrs. Frank Young, YE 4-7724 and Kink Parker, YE 4-2497.

Ownership of Homes Paves Way for Retirement Years

Home ownership, now appreciated by the majority of Americans for its contribution to pleasant and healthful daily living, was cited today as one of the bulwarks in family planning for future retirement by Barney Gilbert, president of the Contra Costa Real Estate Board.

There is a great deal of talk these days about the fact that our population is tending to have a higher proportion of elderly persons," Gilbert said.

"And it is true that in 1900 only slightly over 4 per cent of our population was 65 or over, compared with about 8 per cent in that age group today, and an estimated 10 per cent of our people who will be 65 or over in 1975."

"THESE FACTS have given rise to a number of government plans — many of them impractical and at variance with our traditional principles — to ease the problems of the aged.

"The truth of the matter is," he continued, "that there are five concrete steps which many American families can take on their own initiative to assure financially-secure old age.

"Home ownership is one of these, and like the others, the earlier in life it is realized the more pleasant the retirement years will be."

Mr. Gilbert listed the other four elements in a practical personal retirement plan as the maintenance of a savings or investment account, the creation of a life insurance program providing for a monthly retirement income as well as the protection of dependents, an understanding of federal social security which can provide only minimum benefits, and knowledge of the provisions of company pension plans that may be available to employees.

"THE IMPORTANT thing here," he cautioned, "is to realize that no one of these elements is generally sufficient by itself to provide more than a minimum standard of living for the average person. But a combination of most of them adds up to what the Chamber of Commerce of the United States has called 'the best kind of retirement plan.'"

In suport of the practicality of his advice, Gilbert noted that today over half of the persons 65 or older have some form of lifetime income from retirement plans, and that six of 10 nonfarm families are in the home owner status.

Pointing out that maximum feasible home ownership has long been a national goal of all Realtors and the National Association of Real Estate Boards to which they belong, Gilbert said also that average monthly home mortgage payments in Contra Costa are no higher than many rents, and that legitimate income tax advantages are often connected with home ownership.

"BUT THE VERY real and direct benefits in buying a home now as a part of a retirement plan for the future are two-fold," Mr. Gilbert stated.

"First, by the time most wage-earners are ready for retirement, they will own their home free of debt and subject only to maintenance charges and to the property tax.

"Second, if the retired family should wish to sell their paid-for home, the money received can go far toward providing for the realization of the retirement life preferred — travel or living abroad or in some other part of the country, for example.

"Home ownersrip — the foundation of so much of great value in our national and civic life — can also be the foundation of a secure future for the young couples of today who will be tomorrow's senior citizens," he said.

AFS Students Laud US Tour in Letters 'Home'

"Bebi" Borrie, David Carter and Guido Grazziuzzi, the foreign students who spent last year at Acalanes under the American Field Service exchange scholarship program, are sending typical vacationtime messages to their American families as they tour the United States by bus.

"See you soon. People all across the country very warm and friendly" is the word received by the R. H. Lockeys of Lafayette from Guido.

"Washington is tremendous" came from David to the Louis Amblers in a letter written just before embarking for Europe in Quebec on July 25, he says "utterly exhausting but one of the most important aspects of the whole program . . . completely sucessful both ways." He was referring to both the tour and the A. F. S. Program.

Bebi, who lived with the Thorvald Jacobsens of Lafayette, continues to insist that there is no difference between her country, Sweden, and the United States.

Just as these young people were entertained and appeared on radio and TV in Salt Lake City, Denver, Lincoln, Kokomo and Washington where they "saw and heard Mr. Dulles" according to another card.

Last week Lafayette and Orinda families hosted 25 American Field Service students crossing the country to embark in Seattle for Japan after a year spent in Eastern communities.

Touring the sights of San Francisco and the East Bay and a barbecue supper for the students and host families filled the day.

'Fantastic' is Sales Record Of Realtors Says Secretary

"The achievement of the Contra Costa Real Estate Board last month can only be called fantastic," stated Board Secretary Wayne Bailey this week, citing sales in July totaling $2,078,385.

This is a new record for any single month, and exceeds by far the showings of others, as the Richmond Board, which had $1,-029,785 in sales over the same period.

"This can be laid to the growth of the central county area," said Bailey, but about two-thirds of the credit goes, I think, to the efficiency and enterprise of the multiple listing service."

The trend is seen from a comparison of the total sales for the Julys of 1954, '55 and '56.

In 1954, it was $931,350, and 1955 it was $1,507,690 indicating that each year, there has been an increase of about a half million dollars.

The work is done by some 95 brokers and 340 salesmen, not nearly as large a force as in Richmond, according to Bailey.

'Written' Reports Urged As Tax Saving Method

The Contra Costa County Taxpayers' Association urged this week that the board of supervisors require department heads to submit detailed written reports and estimates in order to develop a sound county expenditure program.

"The effectiveness of budgetary review by the board of supervisors must be radically improved if cost of county government is to be controlled," the association board of directors stated.

THE PRACTICE currently being employed by such counties as Alameda, San Francisco, Los Angeles and San Diego is to require department heads to submit detailed written information as to proposed departmental work programs and the relation of such work programs to estimated costs.

These departmental reports are then carefully screened and analyzed by the County Administrator who makes his studies and recommendations available to the Board. The Supervisors are then better able to decide how much service in a specific department should be provided as compared to estimated cost.

In contrast, in Contra Costa County data available to the Board are largely derived from direct verbal review with department heads. Statistical data, while voluminous, are not well organized and are poorly designed for use in decision making.

"THE BOARD OF supervisors constitute the executive board of a $28 million enterprise," the association noted. "The supervisors are entitled to — and should insist upon — procedures and information well suited to their needs for effective budgetary review and control."

The development of an adequate system of budgetary review in Contra Costa County would contribute substantially toward greater economy, the directors of the tax group concluded.

Optimism Boosts Walnut Festival, September 20-23

Optimism seems to be the keynote of the four-day Walnut Festival to be held September 20-23.

John Osmundsen, commercial exhibits chairman, this week told the Walnut Festival Board that booth sales to commercial exhibitors have been going at a fast clip.

He predicted a complete sellout well in advance of the Walnut Festival opening date.

"Possibly the greatest factor in advance sales of space this year," Osmundsen said, "is the enthusiasm of the exhibitors who, in most instances, are repeaters. Many of the exhibitors already signed to date have taken space at the Festival for several years running."

EVEN THOUGH the theme of the Walnut Festival has been predicated on fun, the huge exhibit tent in the heart of the Festival grounds continues to be an outstanding and popular attraction.

Commercial exhibitors are fully aware of the goodwill and sales impact available through display of their products at the Festival.

Over 25,000 festival-goers daily are expected to visit the exhibit booths during the four-day Walnut Festival this year.

The Walnut Festival Association's plans this year to make the Walnut Festival the biggest and best ever has also been a big factor in increasing enthusiasm and widespread public interest, Osmundsen said.

A RECENT unanimous decision by the Walnut Festival Association to import "Big-Name" Holwood talent has been felt by increased public interest.

To date, Osmundsen reported Permutit Water Conditioner, New York Life Insurance Co. representative, Diablo Insulation Co., Peshon Rug Works, Sherman and Clay, P.G.&E., East Bay M.U.D., Suncraft Engineering Co., Mayer-Simmons Volkswagen, Hendrick Piano Co., City Music House & School, Contra Costa Real Estate Board, Ironrite Sales Co.

Alves Pools, Van Horn Motors, General Synthetics Corp., Beltone Hearing Aids, Roth & Hufft Pools, Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Co., Walnut Creek Electric, Miilu & McPherson Union Stations, Diablo Fence Co. are just a few of the many exhibitors who have reserved space for this year's Walnut Festival.

"A SURVEY of past exhibitors" he added, "has proved conclusively that the interest shown in their exhibits at the Walnut Festival far exceeded the interest shown in similar exhibits within the metropolitan areas."

This is attributed to the fact that the majority of he people viewing exhibits at the Festival are typical suburban home owners who are always interested in new home innovations.

Teen-Agers! Work Wanted Classified Deadline Mon.

Monday is the final day teenagers will be able to run free work wanted classified ads in The Sun.

The ad will appear in all five Sun publications — The Orinda Sun, Lafayette Sun, Walnut Creek Sun, Pleasant Hill Sun and Sun Shopping News.

And it seems evident from past experience that results will be just as gratifying as ever. Many pleased parents have told The Sun that their children have received tremendous response to these ads, run as a service to the community.

The Sun has sponsored the program in order to encourage teenagers, who often find time heavy on their hands during the summer, to take this opportunity to turn leisure hours into profitable endeavor.

The conditions remain the same. A teenager must bring the ad copy to any Sun office, 1000 Orchard Road, Lafayette; 1320 Locust Street, Walnut Creek, or 12 Vivian Drive, Pleasant Hill, by 3 p.m. Monday.

Don't forget, Monday is the last day.

ABCs for running the washer

EASY DOES IT for one Orinda Lady who has quite a system for summertime. She starts out by stripping her house bare of bricabrac, fireplace accessories, carpeting and drapes (her fall housecleaning is half-licked this way), sends out everything that needs refurbishing, including her six children who go off to camp in split trics.

When asked why she didn't send them all at once and have herself a real rest, she laughed, "Then WHO would do the cooking and housework? In OUR house, vacation is for MOTHER while our youngsters get a liberal education in domestic arts!"

The lady, a former efficiency engineer, even doles out report cards and rewards her young crew of cooks and bottle-washers according to the proficiency of their duties.

And while her happy household functions smoothly, this same mother, buried under books and mags, lounges on her magic lanai carpet and pretends she's off in Bermuda or Haiti or some such faraway place. "Much easier," she says, "packing away the house than packing up the family for a never-very-successful or restful safari!" She may have something there!

ON THE OTHER HAND . . . Recently overheard at the pool Nine yr. old boy to his mother — "But, MOM, if we don't go ANYPLACE this summer, how can I face the kids in my class?" . . . Oh, come now, young man!

Like we said, THERE'S NO PLACE LIKE HOME! Even after traveling four weeks to all the fascinating places in Europe . . . Lucille and Tom Fahay of Overhill home from a tour of Europe, which was host and hostessed by Bill and Evelyn Sparling, (he's mgr. of the Oakland C of C which sponsored the trip!) hit some highpoints, tourist-wise, by seeing the Pope twice, close at hand, extremely kind, friendly and interested in helping them feel at home. viewing (sans envy) Grace's Monaco menage, and kissing the famed Blarney Stone! They fell in love w/Italy, whose people were extremely kind, and interested in helping them feel at home.

On a flight from S.F. to N.Y. to London, on to Holland by boat, through West Germany and up the River Rhine by boat . . . Stops incl. Lucerne, Switzerland, Milan for a viewing of the LaScala Opera house and the breathtaking stained glass windows of the cathedrals, to Venice where they were taken to their hotel by gondola, Florence, Peruggia, Assissi,, Rome, Monte Carlo, and Nice to Paris.

A step back to another era

At this point on the globe, the Fahays left the tour and retraced steps to London, through Exeter and Devon to the English countryside at Cornwall, Lucille's mother's home, where they stayed at an old worldish Inn and stepped back into the picturesque 16th century . . . From there to Ireland, where we lost them! Some itinerary for four weeks time!

TRAVEL TIP: Lucille found that hats are not necessary on entering cathedrals, but women's arms must be covered to below the elbows else the guards will not admit you, and this is where a sweater comes in handy!

SUMMER EXODUS . . . The Charles Kersten family were using the Russell Usingers guest towels at Tahoe this week and are due home today w/their carload of seven! Pinky Plumb and her four are somewhere in the Santa Cruz Mts. with a forest pool all to themselves!

The peace and quiet (?) of Carmel was heavenly for Betty Bell and her sister Helen Stone, who is one of the pleasant ladies in the local Pixie Shop! They had themselves a weekend at the Casa Munras undisturbed by crying tots and capgun blasts, but were somewhat trampled on in town by thousands of tourists! (Reading recently of Carmel's planning problems — the natives suggest that taking a pick and axe to the paved main thoroughfare might possibly alleviate some of the summer traffic congestion!)

HOME FROM A STAY AT SQUAW VALLEY LODGE, Mary Ann and Max Aberham and their oldest boy Clifford, who was the only one of the Aberham's five children fortunate enough not to come down w/the mumps just before the planned vacation started! Kathy and Patty and Debbie stayed home w/Gramma while young Charles developed symptoms half-way there and had to be returned home pronto!

By burro and piggyback they went

Finding California's brown hills a contrast to Connecticut's green ones, Marge Roth's sister Jean Palley and her children three visiting here from Stamford for a month's stay! A swimming and barbecue party last Saturday nite at the Ardilla Rd. home of Win and Carol Dunshee, who called in a crowd of old friends to meet Carol's sister Jean Young vacationing here from Portland!

BE PREPARED! And how would you like to pack off into the serenity of the Sierras only to find 40 Boy Scouts practically camping in your lap the next morning? Well, it was a surprise, but not so bad as it sounds, reports Phyllis Simon, who together w/Millard, June and Bill Viavant, and Don and "D.A." (Doris Ann) Jonte are back from a life of absolute rusticity at Pear Lake, a scenic spot surrounded by jagged granite peaks in the Sequoia Nat'l Park . . . The three brave and energetic couples, each family w/two tots along, packed in "piggyback" six miles up from Lodgepole, and required five burros to carry in equipment for their nine-day stay.

The Chandler Barkelews camped at Burney Falls on the Pitt River where their children, Claire and Jimmy, found the fish plentiful, the stream having just been stocked before their arrival!

DINNER PARTY GUEST LIST omitted from last week's story on the Willis Pickton's party for THAILAND visitors were Orinda newcomers, Col. and Mrs. Charles Jenkins, recently from Bangkok, as well as the William Scholbergs, Jim Irwins, James Russells, and the Charles Gibbs, whose name, we hope, will come out correctly for the first time in column history!

THE NEW BRIDE ON OUR HILL bestowed the most sumptuous summer dessert on her guests Sunday night when she and her new groom combined their culinary arts for a first-time barbecue.

The piece de resistance, a half watermelon, hollowed out and filled w/fresh strawberry icecream, and studded w/chocolate dots . . . Very photogenic. It looked like a real watermelon and tasted twice as good!

Commuter Group May Act On Transit District Tuesday

"The Contra Costa County Commuters Association hopes to reach a decision for or against the proposed two-county transit district at our regular meeting next Tuesday night at Acalanes High School," Chairman Ray E. Smith of the association's rapid transit committee said yesterday.

Smith announced that Donald Nisbet, member of the East Bay Transit District Organization Committee, has accepted an invitation to be at the meeting, which will start at 8 p.m.

Nisbet participated in lengthy debate on the matter at the July 10 meeting of the association, at which decision was reserved until next Tuesday.

"THE ASSOCIATION directors have done a lot of thinking on the subject since the July meeting," Smith said. "Questions and answers will be an important part of Tuesday night's discussion.

"One of the main questions we have is: If the proposal to establish the East Bay Transit Dis-Costa Counties is approved at the November elections and if the majority of Contra Costa voters are against it, will it be forced on us anyway?"

THE COMMUTERS Associatiaon directors are concerned as to how much benefit the two-county transit district would bring to Contra Costa, Smith stated.

Smith and Douglas Buffington, acting president of the association, stressed that the Tuesday night meeting will be open to the general public, although voting will be by the directors.

At the November 6 election, a simple majority vote in the two counties can create the district—but, according to Nisbet, those voting must equal two-thirds of the registered voters in the proposed district, or there will be no district.

Young Trumpet Prodigy is Playing His Way to the Top

Thirteen-year-old Mario Guarneri exploited a battered old cornet he accidentally came across five years ago to become one of the finest musical prospects in this area.

"I polished up my cousin's old cornet," he told The Sun reporter, "and decided to really learn to play."

The young son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Guarneri, 58 Orchard Road, Orinda, is marking his recent graduation from the Pine Grove School with the tremendous steps he is taking toward his ambition—to become a great professional trumpet player.

CONSIDERING HIS accomplishments during his five years of trumpeteering, Mario may be well on his way.

Ready to enter Miramonte High School in September, he has just completed a six-week stay at the Pacific Music Camp at the College of the Pacific.

Used to solo performances, Mario appeared Sunday as a soloist with the concert band at Golden Gate Park, San Francisco. Numbers included "The Carnival of Venice," by Herbert Clark, and "Trumpeter's Lullaby," by LeRoy Anderson.

Having in his short career already appeared on television and radio, the prodigy's real break could be coming this Christmas, at which time he has been invited to appear on the Arthur Godfrey Christmas Show. Although final arrangements for the trip to New York for the show have not been completed as yet, Mario is hoping that "this can be my big break."

Well it might be. But even if it isn't, the break seems inevitable.

MARIO HAS BEEN reared in a mecca of music. His mother was at one time a concert pianist, his dad a virtuoso on the guitar and banjo, and his sister Rosalie is a fine pianist who has been accompanying him on several of his performances.

"But the union won't let her accompany me now when there are other professional musicians around," Mario told The Sun.

A bit boastful for a 13-year-old? Not at all.

Mario is a full-fledged member of Local 6 of the Musicians Union and is, of course, the youngest member of the local.

"DON'T DRINK THAT WATER" cautions St. Mary's Colege Student Bill Sheridan as he points to the warning sign on the college campus. The water was found to be contaminated after six boys became ill last week after drinking from a campus sprinkler. Steve Markstein, one of the six, also hopes that Jim Newman won't take that sip. Work of County Juvenile Bureau Told by Sheriff

The Juvenile Bureau in Contra Costa County investigated 133 cases from January to June this year, according to Sheriff Harry A. Brown.

Of these, 14 were for burglarly, 10 missing persons, 14 runaways, 21 sex offenses, 6 auto theft, 9 vandalism, 2 promiscuous shooting, 1 liquor law violation, 5 incorrigibles, 4 escapees and others.

The typical case within the county, showing the job of the Juvenile Bureau, was described by Brown as follows:

"SOME MONTHS AGO the sheriff's department radio dispatcher received a call from the unincorporated area of the county that a fight was in progress.

"The sheriff's deputies responded to find a man and his wife having a violent quarrel in the presence of their minor children. Both were using wild and profane language and the man appeared to be under the influence of alcohol.

"The deputies observed that the house was in a filthy condition with an accumulation of garbage and other litter in the kitchen as well as other parts of the house. There appeared to be no proper bedding and the children were unbathed.

"Realizing that this condition was one for referral to the Juvenile Bureau the responding deputies placed a call to the juvenile officer who was off duty but on call. Juvenile officers render 24 hour service, 7 days a week.

"The juvenile officer found that the father had left home before his arrival. He, however, surveyed the condition of the home and the children and interrogated the mother.

"SHE TOLD him that they had received notice from the health department to clean up the premises, for in addition to the filth and accumulation of garbage the house had become infested with rats.

"In view of the deplorable conditions in the home a photographer was called and colored pictures were taken as evidence to present to the juvenile court.

"It was obvious to the juvenile officer that the mother was in need of psychiatric assistance and the children were in need of more adequate care.

"While the investigation was in progress the father returned to the home in an intoxicated condition and was arrested as he fell from his car into the street.

"Arrangements were made for the mother to receive temporary care at the home of a married son while the minor children were taken; one to juvenile hall, and one to the county hospital, because of illness.

"A 'hold' was placed on the father by the juvenile officer for contributing to the unfit home situation, and he was charged with violation of Sec. 702 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

"Further investigation of the family situation and interrogation of other members of the family indicated that the home had deteriorated into its unfit condition due to the mother's mental condition.

"AFTER THE OLDER children had left home the mother was unable to give proper attention to the home, and the remaining children, without their assistance. The father's escape from reality was due to the conditions in the home.

"He agreed to sign a petition that the mother be committed to a state hospital for treatment as a mental case and he plead guilty to the charge of child neglect.

"He was placed on probation with the proviso that he restore the home to standards acceptable to the health department and that he would provide adequate care and supervision for his minor children.

"Through the harmonious work of the juvenile officer and other agencies of the county this report had a happy ending. The children were returned to their own home, although they became wards of the court for follow-up supervision by the probation department.

"The father has now realized his responsibilities and he is sincerely making every effort to be, once more, a good father. The mother is getting psychiatric help and will in time be able to return to her family."

Rabbi Ducoff is Named to Top SF Position

Rabbi Bernard Ducoff, who in the past year was first Rabbi of the Contra Costa Jewish Community Center in Lafayette, has been elected executive director of the Jewish Education Society of San Francisco by the Society's Board of Governors, it was announced.

The Society is the central Bureau of Jewish Education for San Francisco, the Peninsula and Marin County.

Rabbi Ducoff will be in charge of coordinating and supervising Jewish religious schools in the area.

He plans to establish a teacher-training Seminary for Jewish religious education workers.

Prior to serving as Rabbi of the Contra Costa Jewish Community Center, Rabbi Ducoff spent two years as an Air Force chaplain at Travis Air Force Base. He is a graduate of the Jewish Theological Seminary of America.

Rabbi and Mrs. Ducoff, who reside at 2581 Buena Vista Avenue in Walnut Creek, plan to move about the middle of the month to Parkmerced in San Francisco.

College Tests Are Scheduled For Wednesday

A second and third testing session for prospective registrants at the East Contra Costa Junior College will be held this month, it was announced.

One is Wednesday at 7 p.m. and the other is August 29 at 9 a.m. Students have been requested to notify the college which testing session is desired.

Ashley Stevens, new dean of student personnel, said the A.C.E. and English cooperative tests are required of all full-time students.

High school seniors who took the tests htrough their counselors before graduating, are not required to take them again.

However, they should make sure that transcripts of their records are on file at the junior college student personnel office, and they must also fill out application blanks.

College counselors will be available for individual consultation throughout August. Information may be obtained by telephoning MUlberry 5-4456 or calling at the campus, located on Golf Links Road off State Highway 21.

Kendall to Run Koch Campaign; Doyle Is Chided

Russell Koch, Democratic candidate for State Assembly, 10th District, announced this week that his campaign chairman will be Tom Kendall, Alameda County school administrator.

Koch added that other members of his staff will be named later on.

HE ALSO launched a sharp attack on his rival, incumbent Donald Doyle, saying that Doyle has backed Richard Nixon for a second term as U. S. vice president, but adding that Governor Goodwin Knight has not come out for Nixon.

"Doyle must have a stronger stomach than Governor Knight," Koch said.

Koch also stated that Doyle claimed endorsement by the California Teachers Association, and took issue with that.

"THAT ORGANIZATION has never endorsed a political figure.

"The CTA sends letters commending legislators for voting for certain educational bills, and many assemblymen receive this type of letter, but it does not mean that they are endorsed by this large teachers and school administrators organization.

"If Mr. Doyle means he received a letter from the CTA, then he shouldn't interpret it to mean endorsement of his candidacy," Koch said.

Tooth Trouble? New Help Here

New help for local sufferers of dental ailments came last week as Dr. Kenneth G. Holcombe, 40 Elmwood Court, Walnut Creek, opens a new dental office at 935 Moraga Road, Lafayette.

Dr. Holcombee, who is moving his office from Oakland, has disclosed that his new establishment will specialize in both general dentistry and dentistry for children.

He has had a practice in Oakland for the past five years. The dentist, a local resident for many years, took his pre-dental training at St. Mary's College, and then attended the College of Physicians and Surgeons before opening up his practice.

Living with his wife, Virginia, and three children, Jerry, 9, David, 6, and Holly, 4, Dr. Holcombe is a member of the Alameda County Dental Society and will soon become a member of the Contra Costa branch of the organization.

Mrs. Holcombe is currently president of the Alameda-Contra Costa auxiliary of the society.

Local Singer Will Star in 'Show Boat'

Miss Beverly Abbie, lovely soprano of 1200 Kendall Court, Walnut Creek, will portray Magnolia in the Oakland Light Opera Association's production of Kern's "Show Boat" playing at Woodminster Ampitheatre starting tonight at 8:30 p.m., John M. Falls, producer-director. announced.

A native of Vancouver, B.C., Miss Abbie came to this area in 1948, graduated from Acalanes High School in the class of 1953 and has been studying music privately since then with Virginia Blair of Lafayette.

She has appeared with the association for the past three seasons, and received critics' acclaim for her outstanding performance as Bonnie Jean in "Brigadoon" last season at Oakland's beautiful outdoor theater.

Appearing opposite her as the dashing romantic gambler Gaylord Ravenal, is the Bay Area's top young tenor, Cesare Curzi, who has just returned from Europe where he starred with leading opera companies for the past year.

This is his first Bay Area engagement, and immediately after the Woodminster and San Francisco Opera Company seasons he will return to Europe to fulfill further commitments.

"SHOW BOAT," an American tale of river entertainers on the Mississippi features a cast of 100, including the Jubilee Singers, a top-notch Negro chorus; a large group of dancers who will perform everything from specialty soft-shoe to a Zulu native dance.

Tickets are available at the theater box office, KEllog 4-5194, and Sherman Clay, Oakland, HIgate 4-8575.

Shows will be tonight, tomorrow, next Friday and Saturday.

BRAKES NEED BREAKING IN

The brakes on a new car or on a car that has been fitted with new brake shoes or linings should be broken in correctly. This is done by applying the brakes moderately for several days until they are nicely burnished. Severe application of the brakes may permanently injure new linings and may score brake drums.

Air Officers Return to Unit

Capt. Robert E. James of Orinda and Capt. Theodore T. White who were transferred to the Specialized Training Wing in Oakland last November are now being welcomed back to the 9441 Air Reserve Squadron.

The training schedule last week included a general training exercise entitled "USAF — Community Relations Overseas."

The objective of this project is to familiarize personnel with from the basing of USAF troops among overseas Allies; to show some of the implications of American families being stationed abroad.

England, France and Germany were discussed at length by personnel of Flight "C".

Lt. Col. Robert I. Kahn, Lafayette, rounded out the program with his monthly edition of News.

Naval Planning Post Assumed By Fowden Jr.

Commander Wilbur Mark Madison Fowden Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Fowden of 990 Moraga Road, Lafayette, recently arrived at the U. S. Naval Base at Subic Bay, Philippine Islands, to assume duties as planning officer, Ship Repair Facility.

Prior to leaving for Subic Bay about a month ago, Commander Fowden and his family visited with his parents here for a month. His wife, Jeanne, and their four children, are still with the commander's parents and expect to leave for the Philippines about the middle of this month, to join Commander Fowden about September 1.

The children are Barbara, 10; Martha, 7; W. M. Fowden III (Mark), 4, and Laura, 1.

Before being assigned to Subic Bay, Commander Fowden was stationed for over four years in Washington, D. C. — at first as Gas Turbine Project officer, and then, for the past few years, as first head of the 'Gas Turbine branch, Bureau of Ships. The stopover in Lafayette was while he was en route to his new assignment at Subic Bay.

Commander Fowden, 36, was born in Oakland. He joined the Navy as an ensign early in 1942, after graduation from Oakland Polytechnic College. From 1946 to 1952 he was senior assistant supervisor of shipbuilding at Bath, Me.

After World War II he took up post-graduate studies at the Naval Post Graduate School, Annapolis, Md., and then worked for his Master of Arts in Mechanical Engineering degree at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, Troy, N. Y.

GOP 'Politics' To be Aired at Meeting Tuesday

Some of the behind the scenes struggles at the recent State Republican Convention at Sacramento will be told by senatorial candidate Jack Pedder at the Lafayette Republican Assembly open meeting Tuesday at 8 p.m. at 1341 Juanita Drive, Walnut Creek.

The meeting will be open to all Republicans.

If it is possible, State Assemblyman Doyle will also attend and give a pertinent picture of the recent conventions, at which he was elected vice-chairman of the Republican State Central Committee.

Preceding the open meeting the directors, headed by Gertrude Walker, president, will hold a brief business meeting.

All Assembly members are asked to bring at least two guests. Refreshments will be served.

Young Splashers Prep for 'Jr. Olympics' Swim Meet

Chubby tots of five, string-bean 10 years olds and muscular or Monroe-shaped teen-agers, as the gender may be, all are splashing furiously this week in practice for the "Junior Olympics" swim meet scheduled for Sunday, August 19, in Lafayette.

The swim meet will be open to boys and girls from five through 16, and prizes donated by merchants in Walnut Creek, Lafayette and Orinda will reward winners in the full card of events.

The meet is planned from 2 until 5 p.m. at the turquoise pool of Mrs. Harold Powell, 5139 Los Arabis Road in Lafayette.

The "Junior Olympics" will be directed by Mrs. Edgar A. Manske of Danville, former Olympic diving champion and well-known teacher in this area. Co-director will be Miss Sally Freedman of Orinda, holder of numerous medals locally, a former Berkeley City Club swimmer and a member of the Swarthmore College swim team.

To feature freestyle, back stroke, diving and novelty events, the swim meet will have a 50-cent registration fee which will go to benefit the Valley Art Center building fund. The group is working to establish a permanent nonprofit art center in the Diablo Valley area.

Children desiring to enter may obtain tickets in Walnut Creek from Mrs. Lester Scharmer, 2712 N. Main, YE 4-0119; from Mrs. Stanley Macpherson, 4095 Los Arabis, AT 3-2966, in Lafayette; and from Mrs. Jack S. Rands, 26 Daryl Drive, CL 4-2615, in Orinda.

Parents are asked to accompany participating children and admission for adults will be the same (50 cents) as for the children, according to Mrs. Rawlings Simon, general chairman of the event. Entrants in the meet will be limited to 200, Mrs. Simon said.

Hot dogs and cold drinks, plus favors, will be available for the small fry, and more complicated potables there for the grown-ups.

Registration for the various class events and by age groups will begin at 1 p.m. and the swim races will start promptly at 2 p.m. Swimmers are urged to be on hand when registrations opens, to come in their suits, and car pools are advised where practicable.

Other members of the committee in charge include, besides Mr. and Mrs. Rands. Mr. and Mrs. J. Gordon Ainsworth of Orinda; from Lafayette besides Mr. and Mrs. Macpherson and Mrs. Powell, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Merrill, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Max and Dr. Joseph Larber.

On the "Junior Olympics" committee from Walnut Creek are Mr. and Mrs. Donald MacVean and Mr. and Mrs. Michael Czaja, in addition to Mr. and Mrs. Scharmer.

On the children's ticket committee currently are Kenneth Rands and Jay Ainsworth of Orinda, Johnny Max, Philip and John Simon, Patty, Tommy and Jerry Macpherson and Tommy Clark of Lafayette, and Toni and Vicki Czaja, Ricky Reid, Roy Saltau and Bruce Scharmer of Walnut Creek.

Under the auspices of the Valley Art Center, Mrs. Peter Warner, 53 La Espiral, CL 4-2848, is conducting art classes for children during August at her home in Orinda.

Highways, Roads, New Developments Abound

By BILL HAYWARD

The State Highway Commission has awarded a contract to add one additional west bound lane along the present Mt. Diablo Blvd. from Orinda to the east portal of the tunnel. Also planned is a shorter, and straighter highway from the west portal of the tunnel to Broadway, Oakland by filling in the creek bed and filling in the curves.

I don't doubt but what this is a definite necessity considering the figures for the number of automobiles—1946 there were 34 million vehicles in the United States—1956, 62 million vehicles and most of them are probably driving from Oaklanl to Walnut Creek every day.

Incidentally Lee J. Immel of San Pablo has the job on the Orinda side of the tunnel.

CLAYTON VALLEY: McKie Rotr and his very active organization have decided to take a bite of Capitol Estates and there are well over 200 lots still available in the subdivision, some 40 homes completed at this time by Horace Davi of Pittsburg.

ACALANES JUNCTION, Tony Lagiss' application for retail business zoning just opposite Acalanes High School was granted July 31 by the Contra Costa Planning Commission, five acres in all. This will probably be the start of another long hassell.

MARTINEZ? The exact location most preferable at this time concerning the location for the Veterans' hospital is now bouncing up and down the Arnold Highway just a few miles south of Martinez.

ATTENTION DOG LOVERS: You still do not need a kennel permit if you have up to four dogs (you can also have scads of pups providing they are sold or moved from their birth place before they are 6 months old).

ORINDA PARADE OF HOMES Rheem Center is the location for the display models to be presented by Bob Burgess, Dan Drake, Fuller and Eymann, The Osmundsen Company, Marchant Construction and Harold Smith. Watch this project.

REALTORS ATTENTION! Take note and study Ordinance 382, builders, subdividers and developers may find problems under this ordinance. Get a copy from the Planning Commission, read it and speak your piece.

NEW CONSTRUCTION! The Contra Costa Title Company's new branch for Walnut Creek is under construction on Locust Street just north of the Masonic Temple. According to Les Mullen, President of the firm, the new building will be of concrete block construction and will have approximately 2100 square feet of working area.

Assuming that the building will be finished on schedule it is hoped the doors will open early in December. Main Street Realtor Bernard Carl Gilbert handled the sale between the Presbyterian Church and the title company some months ago.

DANVILLE: The construction firm of Bodie Andrews will break ground Monday on an eighty lot subdivision off of Diablo Road near Danville under the name of Brook Farm.

HOME OWNERSHIP ON THE INCREASE: Census figures show that 60 per cent of our American families now own their own homes. This is an increase of 5 per cent in the last five years, in fact, in the western part of the United States this percenage is almost 16 per cent higher. Incidentally, another assist in this direction comes from the Veteran's Administration Bulletin extending V.A. loans qualified buyers from July 1957 to July 1958.

ABUNDANT WATER: The East Bay MUD has announced that they have been granted an additional 125,000,000 gallons delivered from the surplus water of the Mokelumne River. This insures ample water supply for our rapidly expanding county for future use. The East Bay MUD company has planned a 94 million dollar development program which will provide an additional dam and power house plus additional acqueducts to the East Bay area with a pumping plant at Walnut Creek.

ITS HARD TO BELIEVE BUT, the Multiple Listing Service of the Contra Costa Real Estate Board handled over $2,000,000— in home and property sales during the month of July this year. Just goes to show that this is THE method thru which your home can and WILL be sold.

Dinner Honors 40th Union Year Of Sun Printer

Harold Harmon, a typographer with The Sun for nearly two years, was the central figure at a dinner given in his honor last Friday night in commemoration of his 40th anniversary as member of the International Typographical Union.

The dinner, attended by 50 friends and fellow members of the union local 597, was held at the Pioneer Village in Lafayette. Highlight of the evening came when Harmon was presented with his 40 year pin by ITU representative Paul Garton.

Currently residing at 1770 Walnut Avenue, Walnut Creek, with his wife, Frances, Harmon first became a member of the union in 1916 in Topeka, Kansas.

Withhis subsequent move to the bay area, he joined local 597 in 1931 and worked on many newspapers before joining The Sun.

Both of Harmon's daugthers, Mrs. Melvin Jory of Walnut Creek and Mrs. Marshall Myers of Yreka were present at the dinner.

Special guest at the Pioneer Village was Jack Austin, secretary-treasurer of the union's Oakland local. Also on hand to fete Harmon were fellow Sun employee Mack Cardwell, president of local 597; Ray Hilgendorf, vice-president, and Carl DeTar, secretary-treasurer.

Hemstalks Hold Barbecue Party

The Annual barbucue and swim party for the Walnut Creek Juniors and their husbands was held Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Hemstalk, 1084 West Holly Drive, Walnut Creek.

Perfect weather, excellent food, swimming and dancing all contributed in making a gala evening.

Present were Messrs. Roy Ader, Reed Bells, Roger Black, E. V. Burror, Floyd Burror, Robert Curtis, John Fontenrose, Charles Gouert, Harry Hemstalk. Leonard Hopkins, Jack Mannie, William McGeehon, Henry Neu, Don Oliver, Howard Parsons, Reed Smith, Richard Snoke, Gus Teicheira, Forrest Wilson, Robert Wise, Vic Fracolli, Lewis Powers, Lloyd West, Tom Graves, Tom Hasper, Dave Allan, B. W. Kimbrough and Mr. Charles Pratt, Jr.

Meet Minors' Royal Champs -- They're Kings!

By STEVE AMES

Kings of the Minors are champs one and all, as the winning combination of Head Coach Leo Calestini and Assistant Coach Joe Salvo sparked a pennant-winning season for Kings Food Center in the Lafayette Youth Baseball League.

Two of the reasons they won were the excellent battery of Pete Schneider, pitcher, and a good hustler, Bill McHale, behind the plate.

Another reason they won was their excellent infield combination of Dunc Dickson, first base; Dennis Salvo, second base; Bob Bonacorsi, third base and Bart Rocca, shortstop. They were backed up by Doug White, first base; Terry Mallory, second, and an outstanding utility infielder, Phil Simon.

On the picket line were Ray Biassoti and Steve Shank in left field; Ken Salvo and Steve Calestini in center field; Tim Mallory and Jack Funck in right field.

Cleanup batter Bart Rocca and Bob Bonacorsi teamed up to help make Kings a winner at the plate as well as on defense.

They all cooperated to their fullest to make the ball club of Kings Food Center of the 1956 season champs one and all!!

County Seeking Hospital Aides

The Contra Costa County Civil Service Commission announced that applications are being accepted for hospital attendant.

The examination will be held tomorrow morning. Salary starts at $274 per month and increases to a maximum of $329. Required are completion of the eighth grade and six months experience as a practical nurse or hospital attendant or satisfactory completion of a training course for hospital attendants.

Christian Science

How Christ Jesus healed sickness and discord of every kind will be set forth at services Sunday at Churches of Christ, Scientist, 22 Orinda Highway, Orinda, and 1347 Locust Street, Walnut Creek.

The Master's reply to the messengers of John the Baptist will be included in the Scriptural readings in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Soul" (Luke 7:22):

"Then Jesus answering said unto them, Go your way, and tell John what things ye have seen and heard; how that the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, to the poor the gospel is preached."

Among the correlative selections to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy is the following (210:11-16): Knowing that Soul and its attributes were forever manifested through man, the Master healed the sick, gave sight to the blind, hearing to the deaf, feet to the lame, thus bringing to light the scientific acion of the divine Mind on human minds and bodies and giving a better understanding of Soul and salvation."

Suggestions For Tax Cut Offered!

The Contra Costa County Taxpayers' Association has been making a study of the administration and workings of the county government for some time, and it seems to us that they have done a very good job in providing a list of recommendations for the improvement of our county government . . . a sort of "streamlining" that will help save each of us some money.

THE TAXPAYERS' association is composed primarily of business and industry representatives, but many of our local improvement associations also provide representatives.

They are a kind of "watchdog" which begins to bark when something doesn't sound or look just right to them, and many times their suggestions are reasonable and will help county officials and the layman understand this process of government a bit better.

For instance, here is a summary of recommendations they have made during a study of the process of setting up this year's tax rate. We suggest that county officials should consider them seriously.

1. There is a lack of adequate administrative budget control of maintenance and operation costs. The board of supervisors does not have available a breakdown of the overall costs of such items as telephones, postage, etc., by which it can properly evaluate individual departmental requests for increase in these costs.

2. Department heads should submit detailed written information as to proposed departmental work programs and the relation of such work programs to estimated costs.

At the present time data available to the board is largely derived from direct verbal review with department heads.

3. THERE IS A lack of adequate overall capital improvement planning. The taxpayers' association has formally and informally requested on several occasions the development of a capital improvement program, but nothing has been forthcoming for over three years.

4. The county government has become "big business." . . . It should apply many of the same organizational practices and controls practiced by business generally if the costs and services are to be brought in proper balance.

THESE ARE JUST brief summaries of suggestions which have been dealt with thoroughly by the taxpayers' association. More information on many of these points appears in each issue of The Sun.

We suggest that the county and the board of supervisors seriously consider these, and other, recommendations, and strive to keep the climbing tax rate within bounds.

What They Say

Longer Year For Johnny?

Remember the old school days chant, "No more school, no more books . . .'?"

This is what school children have been sing-songing on the last day of school before summer vacation since time immemorial. Just as in many previous decades, this was the theme song of thousands of small students as they anticipated three blissful months of "freedom" this summer.

BUT JOHNNY has spent the past two hot, restless months this year emancipated from his school obligations . . . and he's beginning to look forward eagerly to the reopening of his classes in September.

Despite the many local projects that have been designed to keep him active and interested during the lethargic summer months, Johnny misses his school activities.

In an effort to solve the problem of summertime boredom of school children, from time to time the suggestion that a 12-month school year be initiated has cropped up.

A RECENT PLAN had vacations staggered throughout the year, which would allow respites to the various grade levels at different times. This idea would also help conserve badly needed classroom space.

With a majority of families in this area having children of school age, the question of the 12-month school year becomes a very important one. It was one that the Roving Reporter asked his neighbors recently.

"Are you in favor of the 12-month proposal for schools?" he asked.

Here's what some folks replied:

Definitely in favor of the proposition was Mrs. Ray O. Ard, 968 Foye Drive, Lafayette, who said, "I wish it was that way when I went to school."

"IT WOULD HELP occupy the children's time much better," Mrs. Ard answered.

Just as adamant in her stand against the suggestion was Mrs. Irving L. Julius, 1200 Monticello Road, Lafayette, who has two children attending the Vallecito School.

"Summer vacations are good for everybody," she opined. "I'm definitely against the idea."

Mrs. Richard A. Medcraft, 85 La Espiral, Orinda, didn't like the plan very much either. With a daughter ready to start kindergarten in the fall, she referred back to her own school days and replied, "I used to like those three summer months a lot."

ALTHOUGH SHE doesn't have any children in school, Mrs. David E. Puddy, 24 Northward Drive, Orinda, goes along with the proposal from the educational standpoint.

"It would keep the children busy," she commented, "and they might study a little harder. I think they have too much play time as it is."

A teacher in Concord is Mrs. W. J. Toaspern of 1923 Buttner Road, Pleasant Hill, who told The Sun that aside from all the usual reasons, the schools need repairs and "rehabilitation" during the summer months.

"It's a big job, and there are a million things to do to keep the schools in good condition. The summer months vacations make this possible," she said.

THE VIEWPOINT of the young student was taken by Mrs. Charles H. Chappelle of 590 Creekside Road, Pleasant Hill.

"I remember that as a child in an eastern school that when the weather got hot, I just couldn't study. I don't think kids have changed much."

Mrs. L. D. McLaurin of 1469 Casa Vallecita, Walnut Creek, another teacher, exclaimed, "Why, no! I like to enjoy the summer times as much as the children!

"BESIDES, if a child wants to get summer school credits, he or she can do so now. There are several summer schools in operation for grade children."

A large family made Mrs. Robert Glynn of 2040 Oakvale Road, Walnut Creek, object to a 12-month school.

"I have seven youngsters, four of them in grade school, and three of pre-school age. If they decide the vactions according to age or any other way, I'd be sure to have at least one vacationing child in the house all year around!"

PARK OR QUARRY?

Dear Editor:

Among the many restrictions proposed for the McCosker rock quarry in Redwood Canyon, none is concerned with the future of the area as a public park.

Perhaps because proponents have been unalterably opposed to a quarry in this valley, it may seem useless to discuss restrictions.

The supervisors have received an unusually large amount of mail protesting the quarry, with letters coming from all parts of the state and from many organizations whose feelings are ordinarily given serious consideration in such a matter.

These groups, and many individuals, have asked chiefly that a final decision be delayed for six months to a year so that an adequately detailed park plan can be drawn up for the area. Our planning staff produced its preliminary outline for a county master plan only a few months ago, and Redwood Canyon forms an essential part of that plan. The supervisors have approved it. We need time to carry this planning much further.

Until the Shepherd Canyon Freeway is constructed, gravel trucks will pass back and forth through the entire length of the proposed park area. If McCosker does not obtain access to the freeway frm his property, the conflict between his business and the park would go on indefinitely until public opinion stopped his operation.

He is reported to have told the Planning Commission that he could, if necessary, use Indian Valley as an outlet, although it now has no improved road.

If he does obtain a restricted permit, it should at least protect our future park to the extent of forbidding his use of the present road through the scenic redwoods.

However, the supervisors still have a chance to reject the permit entirely, and should be urged to do so.

MASS MEETING

Dear Editor:

We attended the "mass meeting" arranged by the Citizens' Committee for Sewers, held at the Orinda School. It was a meeting worthy of "mass" attendance, but there were eleven (11) people there, including the committee members, the speaker and his wife!

The time for voting on the Sewer Bond Issue is Tuesday, August 7th—the work for which these bonds are to pay HAS to be done, one way or another.

Those who have studied the matter thoroughly say the bond issue is by far the least painful.

If our congenital Orinda apathy about something not too controversial persists and this bond issue is not carried, we can easily find ourselves paying really high taxes.

The election officers should at least be permitted to earn their pay!

Here we go again

Well, our County Board of Supervisors has done it again!

Here's the story: Sheriff Harry Brown last week asked them in a letter to pass an ordinance prohibiting all pin ball machines in the county. You'll find his reasons listed in another story in this edition.

This was not an unusual request. After a lengthy investigation several years ago, the County Grand Jury emphatically declared that the Supervisors should ban pin ball games. They noted it is a million-dollar business in the county and has gambling and corrupting influences, as well as causing law enforcement and juvenile problems.

They hit so hard that Jim Long, sheriff at that time, was forced to raid pin ball gambling. I believe a prohibiting ordinance was drafted upon the jury's request and presented to the supervisors. The board was on the spot but even so they refused to pass the ordinance. They appointed a committee (some of whom were interested in continuing pin balls) to study the situation. Nothing ever happened. The committee and the supervisors forgot it immediately.

Cities are way ahead

Meanwhile, most of the cities in Contra Costa County have passed laws banning pin ball machines. Other counties in thee state have passed similar laws.

Since Sheriff Brown took office, the sheriff's department has raided pin balls throughout the county, primarily in unincorporated areas. But it is a tough problem because an illegal pin ball machine can be easily converted into a legal one. It takes manpower to constantly police pin balls.

Well, Tuesday Sheriff Brown appeared before the Supervisors to discuss a proposed pin ball ordinance. Clerk Mary Smith read Brown's letter. Brown said the letter spoke for him and added a few comments.

Board goes into action

Then, Board Chairman H. L. "Jack" Cummings dropped the axe. He merely indicated that there would be no discussion of a pin ball ordinance. No reasons were given. He said no more. Apparently it was a shut and closed deal. Supervisors Ray Taylor, Bud Buchanan, Jake Frederickson and Ivan Goyak didn't say a word. The discussion was closed before it began.

(The preceding description of what happened Tuesday was gathered from other newspaper accounts and discussion with some people present at the meeting. To be certain of accuracy, I have just finished talking to the clerk of the supervisors, Mary Smith. She said, however, that she thought Cummings had added, "We'll take this under consideration.")

Million-dollar question

Why? Why won't the supervisors even discuss this serious problem? Why won't they take action?

Frankly, I don't know. Various theories and reasons could be given. But the fact remains — the supervisors refuse to act.

(Incidentally, both supervisorial candidates from the Second District, Mel Nielsen and Clarence Wallace, are on record as favoring a county ordinance outlawing pin ball machines.)

We should note, however, that the supervisors did take commendable but belated action on the request for an ordinance regulating and licensing cardrooms in the unincorporated sections of the county. The Sun campaigned for this some years ago when this area was being invaded by card room operators. The supervisors would do nothing about it. But Tuesday they agreed with the sheriff and instructed him and District Attorney Francis Collins to work out the details.

Walnut Creek already outlaws cardrooms but it is one of the few cities in the county that does not prohibit pin ball machines.

A little background

Well, this column could go on and on. The Sun has campaigned against pin balls, gambling and corruption for years. We've appeared before the grand jury. We've cooperated with federal, state and local law enforcement agencies, and have needled them when necessary. In turn, The Sun has been attacked by certain public officials and the gambling interests. Boycotts and pressure of many kinds have been aimed at us.

This is an old story for long-time readers of The Sun: a new one for more recent residents. For the latter, let me point out that our past exposes of gambling and vice in the county were not PRIMARILY motivated on an anti-gambling issue. The major reason is that gambling and vice are usually accompanied by corruption or demoralization of public officials. This breaks down good government.

Well, I really climbed on the soap box today, didn't I? Okay, I'll get off . . .

Letters to The Editor

THANKS

Dear Editor:

On behalf of the more than 10,000 Jehovah's witnesses that gathered at Golden Gate Fields for their District Assembly, we wish to express our thanks for your news coverage.

Certainly conditions on the earth have become more and more unsettled. The Bible foretold them and also foretold the remedy.

We feel sure that the people who read your columns and visited with us were uplifted spiritually and morally. Then too, they have been helped to learn of the Bible hope that "permanent peace will come in our day."

Many expressions of appreciation for what you have done come to our attention and we are pleased by this note to pass them on to you.

THE SWIMMING POOL of the new Moraga Valley Country Club forms a restful background for the leisurely chat Mesdames Fenwick Cole and Joseph Longacre enjoy at the club. With more than 200 families having already applied for membership, the club is planning a new clubhouse, two more swimming pools, tennis courts and bowling greens.

Rose Marie Allan To Wed Frank Sisson in Concord

At a double ring ceremony to be held at the First Presbyterian Church in Concord with the Rev. Ernest J. Bradley officiating, Miss Rose Marie Allan and Frank Gerald Sisson both of Pleasant Hill will exchange their wedding vows at an evening service.

The church will be decorated with gladiolii and carnations, and early chrysanthemums.

The bride-elect will wear a white lace chantilly waltz length dress, with an elbow length veil held in place with a lace cap. Her prayer book will be covered with an orchid cascad of lily-of-the-valley, and she will be given in marriage by her father.

Maid of honor will be Miss Linday Kay Allan, sister of the bride, who will wear a pink crystallette waltz length dress with white and pink carnations. Other attendants are Miss Anne Robinson of Longmont, Colo., aunt of the bride, Miss Peggy Lindsay and Miss Diane Sue Swegart of Pleasant Hill.

Joseph Eugene Sisson of Pleasant Hill will be best man, with William Lindsey of Pleasant Hill and William Swegart of Oakland to serve as ushers.

The bride-elect, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Benson of 207 Carolos Drive, Pleasant Hill, is a June 1956 graduate of Pleasant Hill High School, a member of the Drama Club, and was a drum majorette at Pleasant Hill High School.

The future benedict, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sisson of 309 Las Lomas Way, Walnut Creek; graduated from Mt. Diablo High School in June 1954; just completed two years of study at Menlo College; and plans to enter his father's contractor's business in Walnut Creek.

A reception will be held following the wedding ceremony at the groom's parent's home. The newlyweds will cut a three-tiered white double ring decorated cake, with lily of the valley decorations.

The young couple will go to an undisclosed destination for a honeymoon.

Local Duo View Lodi Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Peter T. Muller of 1925 Eloise Street, Pleasant Hill, attended the Sunday afternoon wedding of his brother Hugo Muller to the former Miss Carol Marie Spiekerman of Lodi.

The wedding was held at St. Peter's Lutheran Church in Lodi and was a double ring ceremony.

The bride wore a full length white lace gown, with the bodice fashioned of imported Valenciennes lace and the tulle embellished skirt by Valenciennes lace medallions, and the skirt was finished with a chapel length train. A Juliet cap of lace petals embroidered with seed pearls held her fingertip veil secure, and she carried her great grandmother's white lace bridal handkerchief with her bouquet of valley lilies, stephanotis and cymbidiums.

Mrs. Robert Barr Smith of Palo Alto was matron of honor and wore a ballerina length dress of white dotted Swiss over blue taffeta, and carried a bouquet of blue delphinium.

Peter T. Muller of Pleasant Hill was his brother's best man, and ushers were Robert Spiekerman of Stockton, the bride's brother; David Muller, another brother of the groom, of Oakland, and Robert Boyd of El Cerirto.

Both the bride and groom are descended of pioneer California families. Son of the Hugo Muller Jrs. of Oakland, Phillip's antecedents include William Freeman, and William and Phillips Nicholls, who came from England to settle in the Mother Lode during the early 1850s.

The bride is the granddaughter of Mrs. J. Mohr Schlictman of Lodi, and the late Clause Schlictman Jr. early settlers in San Joaquin County, and the late Mr. and Mrs. Ed Spiekerman of Lodi.

A reception was held for the newlyweds at the bride's home in Lodi. Following a honeymoon in Southern California, the young couple plan to live in the East Bay.

Locals Travel To View 60th Anniversary

At a family dinner party held in Jackson, California, Mr. and Mrs. Wiley E. Tussin of 2313 Buena Vista Avenue observed their 60th wedding anniversary recently.

The Tussings were married in June, 1896 in Tuscon, Arizona, first arrived in California in 1903 in the Los Angeles area, and have been local residents for the past 11 years.

The family dinner was hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Packard Harrington, a granddaughter of the couple. Ford M. Tussing of Upper Happy Valley Road, Lafayette, and his son, Ford M. Tussing Jr. drove the Wiley E. Tussings to Jackson for the celebration.

Others at the party included Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stone of Atherton, a granddaughter and five great grand-children, Tommy, Keny and Marcia Ann Stone, Malie and Mindy Harrington.

Another daughter, Mrs. Harold W. Schmid, of Houston, Texas, was unable to be present.

Becomes Mrs. M. H. McFarlane

Nuptial vows were exchanged Saturday by Joan Linsley of Lafayette and Michael H. McFarlane of Walnut Creek, in the Claiborne Hill Chapel, Berkeley Baptist Divinity School.

Parents are Dr. and Mrs. Earle G. Linsley of Willow Drive, Lafayette, and Mr. and Mrs. Theodore McFarlane of Tice Valley Boulevard, Walnut Creek.

Present were Miss Margaret Boevers of Lafayette, and the bride's brother, James Linsley of Lafayette, who was one of the ushers.

Maid of Honor was Miss Jenette Quinlin of Palo Alto, and best man was Herbert Ollenberg of San Jose. He is a frmer classmate of the groom at Contra Costa Junior College.

A reception was held at the Town and Gown Club.

Swim Party Held at Home Of Palmers

A gala swim party and steak barbecue was held last Saturday afternoon and evening in the Hilton Road residence of the E. W. Palmers of Walnut Creek

Co-hosts for the Leo J. Kitnys of Lafayette, the E. W. Palmers and Charles Fullers of Walnut Creek. All proceeds from the social event will benefit the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center through the Flicker Unit.

Guests were Messrs. and Mesdames J. Raymond Beeson, H. G. Brandenburg, Howard E. Burk, Mrs. Ernest Buswell, S. J. Caruso, Charles Fuller, Ralph Hanna, Leonard Hooper, Dr. James Keenan, Leo J. Kieny, Richard Lieber, R. W. Olsen, Leo Olson, E. W. Palmer, David Penna, H. P. Smith, Harold Vincent, John Werner, Raymond C. Williams, Miss Nada Miller.

Mrs. Kieny, president of the Flicker Unit of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center, said that each member of the Flicker Unit was responsible for an individual project this year and that many more parties were to be held during the coming months to benefit the Therapy Center.

Members to Have Parisian Evening

An "Evening in Paris" will soon be made possible by members of Pandora Chapter, the Children's Home Society group in Orinda.

Cafe Parisian is the name which sets the French theme for the Open House to be held Saturday, September 8, in the garden of Gerhart Cooke home on Don Gabriel Way, Orinda. The affair is scheduled from 4 to 7 p.m.

Mrs. Glen Smith is general chairman of the party, assisted by Mesdames John Barchfield, W. Bannister, Charles Biesel, Ronald Kersh and John Sullivan.

Invitations will soon be in the mail to friends of the Pandora members, who will be enjoying the group's first major function following summer vacations.

Sorority Alums To Play Bridge

The Diablo Area Alumnae of Alpha Gamma Delta will gather at the home of their president, Mrs. E. W. Jacobson, 118 Cynthia Drive, Concord, for an evening of bridge Monday at 8 p.m.

Mrs. T. C. Duinne and Mrs. W. N. Grosbeck will be co-hostesses for the evening.

Newlywed Balabans Tour Turkey, Groom's Homeland

Now on an extended honeymoon tour in the home city of the benedict's parents in Istanbul, Turkey, the newlywedded Mr. and Mrs. Berc H. Balaban will, during this month, participate in a second formal wedding ceremony.

The bride is the former Miss Janis Lee Morgan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Morgan of 897 Holly Hill Drive, Walnut Creek. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Istepan Balaban, who were unable to attend the initial ceremony held in early summer at St. Mark's Episcopal Church in Berkeley, but will sponsor the second ritual in Turkey.

Following a nine months tour of the United States and the Continent, the couple will return to the Bay Area, where the bride will complete her final semester of undergraduate study at the University of California. The groom holds a bachelor of arts degree, and studied at Saint Michael French College and Lise College in Istanbul.

The bride wore a full length bridal gown of white lace, and carried a bouquet of white bouvardia and orchids, and a flat, pearl embroidered headpiece secured her fingertip length veil. The Rev. Walter Williams, pastor of St. Marks officiated at the double ring rites.

Miss Joan Erbentrau was maid of honor and was gowned in yellow and carried turquoise and white carnations. Similarly gowned in turquoise and carrying yellow and white flowers were the bridesmaids, the Misses Elinor Stafford, Jere Scott, Sylvia Kayayan and Marjorie Given, with Vicki Davis as flower girl.

Bedros Kayayan of Walnut Creek was best man, and seating the guests were Bet Heffron, Paul Juette, Dan Sedall and William Madden.

Following the church ceremony, the couple received 150 guests at a reception in the church Parish Hall, and cut a three tiered wedding cake trimmed with the traditional bride and groom figures.

The newlyweds spent a week in Carmel before starting on their extended travels.

Kappas Plan Fashions, Food

A fall fashion show and luncheon is already in the planning stage by the Contra Costa and Bay Cities Alumnae of Sigma Kappa.

This luncheon will benefit Sigma Kappa's local philanthropy, the Mount Diablo Therapy Center, and will be held October 3 at the Sigma Kappa chapter house in Berkeley.

Mrs. Lloyd Pfeifer has been appointed general chairman of the fashion show and Contra Costa reservations may be made with Mrs. Robert Costa.

Funds from the benefit party will also be given to other Sigma Kappa national philanthropies, a national gerentology program and the Maine Seacoast Mission, which the sorority has supported for many years.

Alumnae board members were entertained recently at the home of Mrs. James Casten in Piedmont, and made plans for the fall program.

Attending from Contra Costa were Mrs. Robert Maynard, Orinda; Miss Elda Eggert, Concord; Mrs. Allen Seibert and Mrs. H. G. Noack and Mrs. Robert Costa, Lafayette.

Garden Rites Wed Couple

Orinda is the new home of Mr. and Mrs. John Underwood Sabin, newlyweds who recited their nuptial vows recently at a garden wedding in Lafayette.

Miss Carol Louise Racine became the new Mrs. Sabin in ceremonies at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Schneider of Springhill Road, Lafayette. The pink and white floral decorated garden provided the setting as Carol was given in marriage by her father, William Andrew Racine, 3353 Springhill Road.

Officiating at the rites was Dr. Fred Stripp of Berkeley.

The bridegroom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Palmer Sabin of San Marino, had as his best man George Hynes of San Francisco.

He also asked his brothers, Richard P. Sabin of Berkeley and Peter Sabin of San Marino, and John Wade of Atherton, to serve as ushers.

The bride was also served by a member of her family, Mrs. Arnold F. Runo of Orinda, the former Marilyn Racine, attended her as Matron of Honor. Another member of Carol's entourage was Mrs. Robert M. Rechtwig of Santa Ana.

Fitting well into her bride's role, Carol was gowned in a white embroidered organdy dress with a Dutch square neck. The gown had long sleeves and a full flowing floor-length skirt. Carol's illusion veil was held by an embroidered headpiece.

Both of the bride's attendants wore white embroidered Swiss organdy dresses with Dutch square necks and short, full skirts. Their headpieces were ribbon bands with pink roses at the side and they carried sheaf style arm bouquets of pink roses.

Carol's mother wore an oyster white lace sheath type dress with blue detail and blue accessories. Mrs. Sabin was gowned in sea foam blue silk print with white accessories.

Both John and Carol attended the University of California.

Women Fete To Feature 'Aqua Mania'

"Water Balletomaniacs" could be the theme for the Orinda Woman's Club buffet swim party on Monday, August 20 at the Lafayette home of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Louis.

Several members are working to produce an aquacade to entertain members and their guests, the prospective members for the 1956-1957 club year.

This is the club's third swim party, and to add to the enjoyment of the aquacade, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gregg have recorded a muiscal accompaniment.

Under the coordination of Roy Littlejohn of Ridge Lane, Mesdames Walter Ammon, Don Anderson, John Bannister, John Barkley, Walter Estes, Beau Guinther, John Everett, Thomas Howard, Albert Johansson William Leonard, Howard Libby, Wallace Raddell and Edmund Wiford, will be in the show.

Members of the club's board are making arrangements for the buffet supper. Mrs. Thomas Howard disclosed "The menu consists of spaghetti, french bread, salad, dessert and coffee. Members and guests are asked to bring their own silver, plate and cup."

Prospective members who are expected to attend are Mesdames:

Cal Schaeffer, Robert Lester, R. A. Soderstrom, F. A. Dorland, F. A. Sawyer, Herbert Beasley, Earl Vickars, George Kozak, Norman Brooks, Lloyd MacDonald, John Parks, Phil Mittell, Robert Voegtly, William Wignall, Raymond West and Wallace Edwards.

'Gardens' Couple Celebrate Silver Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Walker of 1843 Ardith Drive, Gregory Gardens, celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary at a surprise dinner party given in their honor by a daughter. Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Francis of 1027 Robin Lane, Concord were hosts to her parents and friends.

The Robert S. Walkers were married July 1931 in Ottawa, Canada. Four of their five children were at the dinner party. In addition to Mrs. Francis, they are Bob Walker Jr. of Portland, Oregon; and Bruce, Betty Ann and Pat Walker of Pleasant Hill. All were present to honor their parents' silver anniversary with the exception of Bob Jr. who was unable to attend with his family.

Gifts symbolized the observance and included an eight piece silverware set, a silver tea service, a silver trimmed teapot. Mr. Walker's four brothers and one sister presented them with silver candelabras.

The Walkers cut for the guests a white and silver cake decorated with tiny white rosebuds and silver leaves.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Johnson, and children Glenn and Rodney of Hayward; Mrs. Maude Hunter of San Jose, and Joseph Francis of San Francisco.

Siemons Return From Honeymoon

At home to friends and family in Pleasant Hill, are newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Robert James Siemons, following a honeymoon trip to Southern California and Las Vegas.

The just-weds exchanged their weddings vows in Sacred Heart Church in Oakland, at a double ring ceremony with the pastor, Reverend John Coughlin officiating.

The bride, the former Miss Doreen Annette Mazzini of Oakland, wore as her wedding gown an imported Chantilly lace gown with a voluminous net skirt with front and back panels of the lace. Her elbow length veil was held in place by a crown of seed pearls. The prayer book she carried which was covered with a white orchid, was also worn by the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. John Siemons of Pleasant Hill, at her wedding.

Maid of honor was Miss Linda Streeker of Orinda, who wore a pale lavender organdy with crown headpieces of net and pearls. Secondary attendants Miss Pat Williford, Joanne Arecco and Miss Sandra Cassazza, all of Oakland, wore identical frocks as the maid of honor.

Serving as best man was William Siemons of Pleasant Hill, the bridegroom's brother; and ushers were James Laveder of El Cerrito, Robert Sims of Berkeley, and Donald Copeland of Lafayette.

The bride, a graduate of Technical High School in Oakland, was vice president of Deodar Branch of the Children's Hospital of the East Bay during her undergraduate days. She is the daughter of Mrs. William P. Kirkner and Lawrence N. Mazzini of Oakland.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Siemons of 318 Soule Avenue, Pleasant Hill, attended East Contra Costa Junior College, has served with the United States Army and attended the University of California.

A reception and buffet dinner followed the wedding ceremony at the Oakland home of Mr. and Mrs. John Penna, uncle and aunt of the bride.

Meadowbrook Club Gets Gala Srart

More than 250 guests joined the members of Meadowbrook Golf Club during festive cocktail hours at the club in Reliez Valley last Saturday.

The "Pro" shop of the club was a popular area during the party. At some time during the evening, every guest found himself joining the membership and golf committees there to study the plans of the actual 18 hole projected golf course.

Early that morning the golf committee had met with architect Lee Hulberg of the Presidio Golf Course in San Francisco and special consultant Jack Fleming of San Francisco to walk over the acreage of the club. From this latest meeting the members learned the final plans of the course and the schedule of the building of the course.

On August 20, a horde of bulldozers and earthmovers will descend upon the 150 acres to begin the initial nine holes of the new course.

Taking the cue from this news, the social affairs committee plans to design the club's August 21 luncheon bridge at the club in a "Tee-Off" motif. Co-chairmen of the affair will be Mrs. Egbert G. Schearer of Concord and Mrs. Robert Boone of Berkeley.

Many guests at the reception August 4 joined in no-host parties for dinner after meeting old and new friends in the refreshment bar and on the clubhouse terrace. During the early part of the evening a synchronized swim team from the Soltau Swim School offered a diversity of water ballets.

Members of the club who entertained at dinner in their homes after the cocktail hours were Mr. and Mrs. Albert M. Wolff of Orinda and Mr. and Mrs. Egbert G. Schearer of Concord, who invited Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Schearer of Fresno and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Fontaine of Orinda to their home.

FINE SERVICE and good food and drinks were enjoyed by these members of the Meadowbrook Golf Club last Saturday evening at a membership cocktail party at the club. The cordial waiter above is Pat Boone, a member of the club's board of directors. Others in the photo are (left to right) Richard T. Spragens, Mrs. Spragens, Mrs. Thomas A. Montague, Thomas Montague and Joe Kelleher. Over 200 guests attended the affair.

Judy Teuscher Marries Otis Black in Nevada

Joined in holy wedlock Saturday morning in Gardnerville, Nev. were the former Judy Teuscher of Lafayette, and Otis L. Black Jr. of Walnut Creek.

The ceremonies were performed by the Rev. E. P. Leising in the Trinity Lutheran Church.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Teuscher of 3262 La Canada, Lafayette, and of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Black of Pleasant Hill Road.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Charles Hoffman, formerly Carol Pedersen of Lafayette. Mr. Hoffman was best man.

The bridegroom attended Las Lomas High School, and is employed in San Francisco. The new Mrs. Black will enter her senior year at Acalanes High School this fall.

Their engagement was announced last December.

The father of the bride is a deputy sheriff of Contra Costa County.

The couple is residing at the home of the groom's parents, and will make their home in Lafayette.

Carol Kennedy Married in Presbyterian Church Rite

In a dress designed and made by her mother, Miss Carol Jean Kennedy became Mrs. Charles Dan Aiman in ceremonies July 29 at the Walnut Creek Presbyterian Church.

The Rev. James Upshaw performed the rite, and a vocal solo was sung by Marshall McGuire of Walnut Creek.

A reception was held afterwards at the Elks Club in Walnut Creek, where guests had Hawaiian punch and a four-tiered cake, topped by the traditional bride and groom.

THE COUPLE honeymooned in Carmel, and are at home at 120 Shady Lane, Walnut Creek.

Maid of honor at the wedding was Joan Alexander of Oakland, and bridesmaids were Kathy Terry, Sandy Plantz and Gail Hansen.

Best man was Alan Russ of Walnut Creek, and ushers were Larry Aho, Roger Fleiss, Jim Phelps and Richard Munn.

THE BRIDE wore a dress designed by her mother, Mrs. Arnold Kennedy of 1 Westminister Place, Walnut Creek.

It was a white ballerina length gown, bodice of French chantilly lace, fashioned with three quarter length sleeves, nylon tulle yoke.

A TINY LACE standup collar was trimmed with seed pearl, yoke design edged with irridescent sequims, full taffeta skirt, lon tulle, appliqued with lace orchids, outlined with matching sequins.

The fingertip tulle veil was attached to a tiara, with tiara headpiece covered with seed pearls and sequins.

She also wore white lace elbow length gloves, and held a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis.

Parents of the couple of Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Aiman of 25 Miramonte Road, Walnut Creek.

THE BRIDE graduated from Acalanes High School in 1956, and was a member of the Walnut Creek Assembly 84, of the Rainbow Girls.

The groom is a 1954 Acalanes graduate, attended Contra Costa Junior College, aand was master councilor of the Las Trampas Chapter. Order of DeMolay.

Out-of-town guests at the reception were Mr. and Mrs. Glen Kelley of Greeley, Colo., Mr. and Mrs. Glen Nesslien of Long Beach, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Frizzel of Galt, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. John Barnes of Palo Alto.

Bev Fibush to Wed After Social Whirl

Invitations were in the mails last week for the wedding of Beverly Frances Fibush and Fred J. Joyce III. Beverly is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Fibush of Springhill Road.

Her granfather, Dr. Charles R. Shepherd of Berkeley will officiate at the service which will take place at the Thousand Oaks Baptist Church in Berkeley at 4:30 p.m. Sunday.

Beverly will have her sister Judy as her maid of honor. Her bridesmaids will be Miss Carol Morse of Millbrae, a Tri Sigma sorority sister, Miss Betty Jean Imrie of Diablo, and Miss Marilouise Tinay of Lafayette.

Little Miss Frances Caplan of Menlo Park, a cousin, will be a junior bridesmaid.

Fred, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Joyce Jr., of Berkeley, will have his brother Mike Joyce as best man. Chosen to usher at the church are the Messrs. Donald Fibush Jr., brother of the bride-to-be, Donald Morrison, Paul Peterson, and Joseph Tucker all of Berkeley, and Edward Ryan who is stationed with Fred at Parks Air Force Base.

Miss Carol Morse was hostess recently at a shower for Beverly at her home in Millbrae. Guests included sorority sisters from the College of San Mateo and other friends in Menlo Park where Beverly is currently employed.

Miss Marilouise Tinay entertained for her at a luncheon and shower in the Starlight Room of the Sir Francis Drake Hotel in San Francisco. Beverly was also honoree recently at a surprise shower which was co-hostessed by Mrs. Jack Schneider, Mrs. Alex Troffee, Mrs. Dan Condit and Mrs. Robert Eshleman and given at the home of Mrs. Schneider.

The bachelor and spinster dinners are to take place on Wednesday. The rehearsal, which is scheduled for tonight, will be followed by a dinner at the Claremont Hotel in Berkeley for members of the bridal party.

Miss Logoteta is Married

At home in Walnut Creek until the arrival of orders from the United States Air Force are Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Alan Bell, who were married July 14 in the Walnut Creek Methodist Church.

The former Virginia Lee Logoteta became the bride of an airman second class in ceremonies conducted by Rev. Philip Solbjor.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Logoteta, 21 Carisa Court, Walnut Creek, she graduated from Pleasant Hill High School in June.

She has been employed at Parks Air Base, and there met Douglas Bell, the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Bell of Ellendale, N. D.

At her wedding, Mrs. Bell wore a white nylon gown with a headpiece of white satin trimmed in pearls. She carried a white bible, with a spray of white flowers.

Matron of Honor was Miss Mary Ann McCollom of Walnut Creek, and best man was U.S. Army Sergeant Robert Bell, brother of the bridegroom.

Afterwards, the reception attended by about 75 friends and neighbors was held at the home of the bride's parents.

Miss Lessard Takes Vows

St. Michael's Lutheran Church in Berkeley was the setting of the candlelight ceremony recently which united Diane Lessard of Lafayette and David Huberty of Berkeley in marriage.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Lessard of Janet Lane, selected a white embroidered organdy gown, the skirt fashioned with three tiers over a hoop, and with a bateau neckline.

She wore a short veil and carried a nosegay of stephanotis and white carnations. Cathy Waters of Oakland was her attendant, and Dana Butler of Berkeley was flower girl.

Both wore white organdy dresses over pink taffeta, and carried nosegays of pink and white carnations and delphinium.

The bridegrom, son of Dr. and Mrs. L. A. Huberty of Berkeley, asked his brother, Philip Huberty, to stand with him as best man. After the ceremony, a reception was held at the bride's home.

Diane was formerly a student at College of Arts and Crafts in Oakland, and David graduated from University of California a few years ago.

After a honeymoon, destination of which was undisclosed, the couple will make their home in Berkeley.

Rheem Cops Softball League Title

Divisional Play Now Under Way At Pittsburg

The Rheem Center softball nine wound up the 1956 season in first place in the Walnut Creek Association final standings. The Rheem club copped both halves of the pennant race.

The big battle was for the runner-up spot, which has been pretty much of a race between M & M and Contra Costa Sand and Gravel.

Final results were not available at this writing, but Contra Costa Sand and Gravel held a definite edge

Trophies are awarded winners and the runner-up.

RHEEM, AS WINNER, is entered in divisional play being held at Pittsburg, starting last night.

The winner will go to the state tournament, which will be held in Redwood City, and from there the next step will be the Softball World Series, to be held at Edmonds Field, Sacramento, September 17-23.

Wednesday night, August 1, found Contra Costa Sand and Gravel making its bid for the runner-up trophy by dumping Middleton and Marchetti of Martinez, 3-1.

THE CONTRA COSTA Sand and Gravel team got but three hits off the slants of Red Edison but put two of them together with a pair of walks in the fourth inning to score the three runs.

Will "Goose" Gausman gave up six hits to M & M but kept them well scattered, giving up but one run in the seventh.

Gausman struck out 11 to Edison's five. In the walk department it was Edison, 3; Gausman, 1.

Ike Lucido, first baseman for M & M, was the top stick with a pair of singles in three times at bat.

Hero for the winners was Will Buechel, C. C. catcher, who slammed out a home run with two on in the fourth, to account for all three runs.

LAST FRIDAY found the season's finale on tap at the Walnut Creek Municipal Park, with Rheem posting a shutout win over Hoffman's of Martinez with a no-hit, no-run game.

Big Ed Bill, on the mound for the winners, cruised to a 4-0 win as he struck out 16. On the debit side he hit two batters and walked five, but that's as far as they got.

Rheem chalked up its four runs in the first, and Jim Hill, on the hill for the losers, held them scoreless the rest of the way.

Rheem collected six hits over the route, with Second Baseman Ken Gerner getting a pair of singles in three tries.

Safe Boating Is Real Fun!

By AMBROSE P. MacDONALD

Knowledge of seamanship, navigation, and small boat handling embraces many subjects. First and most important, perhaps, is the proper equipment required by law on every boat.

Of course, a boatman could learn the provisions of the Motorboat Act of 1940 by reading the law, but a fuller explanation is given in the free Piloting courses offered by the United States Power Squadrons, non-profit national yachtsmen's organization.

Boats in Class 2 (26 to 40 feet long) and Class 3 (40 to 65 feet long) must carry forward a bow light which shows white from dead ahead to two points abaft the beam on either side of the boat. This means an arc of white light for 224 degrees, with the center line at the bow.

In addition, a separate red light must show for 10 points (112 degrees) on the port, or left, bow, and a 10-point green light on the starboard (right) bow. At the stern, a white light, higher than the others, must show all around the horizon. Lights are not required for boats used only in the daytime.

The red and green bow lights must be shieleded so they cannot be seen from the opposite side, and all colored lights must be visible for at least one mile. White lights must be visible for at least two miles.

Class 2 and 3 boats must carry a whistle or air horn, but fog horns are not required and shouldn't be used in place of a whistle. It must be audible for at least one mile. When at anchor in a fog, a bell must be struck at proper intervals.

Two portable fire extinguishers must be aboard every class 2 motorboat, and three on every Class 3 motorboat. These may be 1½ gallon foam, 4-pound carbon dioxide, or 1-quart carbon tetrachloride.

Carburetors must be equipped with flame earresters. At least two cowl ventilators must be installed, except in open boats. The Coast Guard has the right to board any vessel under way for inspection, but owners can avoid this inconvenience by having their boats courtesy inspected by the Coast Guard Auxiliary.

Violations bring fines of $100, or $200 if the boat is carrying passengers for hire. Reckless operation is punishable by a fine of $2,000 and/or one year in prison.

More complete information on equipment, including other necessary items not required by law, is available by taking the free Piloting courses offered by the United States Power Squadrons. Write to Commander William X. Okker, Oakland Power Squadron, 160 Estates Drive, Piedmont, California.

SPORTS

A STRANGE COMBINATION of athletics is currently being encountered by sports enthusiasts as the baseball season reaches its climax and the gridders begin preparations for the fall sport. In particular consternation is Steve Jordan, who didn't have time to change from his baseball uniform before he started practicing his pass catching for the Acalanes High eleven. Steve, who pitched for Acalanes and an American Legion nine, receives the oval from Lou Marello, quarterback candidate for Acalanes.

A Golfing Great, Football Vie for the Sporting Eye

By MIKE FARMER

It wasn't without experience that Dave Derr, 1956 DVAL champion golfer, entered the Northern California 54 Hole Junior Medal Play Championships in San Jose July 16, 17, 18, this year. His four year golfing "past" as a member of the Contra Costa Country Club eased Dave through a field of 200 into a tie for fourth place with defending champion Jack Lucetti.

Dave's entry in the match prompted this comment in a San Jose News sports column entitled "Chip Shots" from the pen of Tom Rowen: "When Dave Derr of Walnut Creek filed his entry for the tourney, he specified he wanted to compete with some leading players. He said he had always been paired with higher handicappers and his game suffered.

"His request was granted and the seven handicapper from the Contra Costa Country Club finished with a one-over par 71 to be among the first round leaders."

In his good old high school days — all of two months ago — Dave established an unprecendented list of accomplishments, a few of which will be mentioned here. During his four years of golf, one at Diablo, three at Pleasant Hill, the Walnut Creek greenman received four varsity letter, two team captainships and a par 71 at the Mt. Diablo Country Club to win the 1956 DVAL individual championship.

Since June of this year, Dave has trampled the greens in the following tournaments: Meadow Club Junior Invitation in Fairfax, San Francisco City Junior Championships at Lincoln Park, Contra Costa County Home and Home Tourney with Vallejo, Fred Baumgardner Memorial Junior Championships on the fairways of Del Rio at Modesto, Northern California 54 Hole Junior Medal Play Championships at the San Jose Country Club and the Almaden Municipal Golf Club in San Jose and the Diablo Country Club Junior Invitational.

Practically every golfer has an aversion to a particular course. In tihs case it is the Olympic Club in San Francisco. Dave's experience on this course left no turf unturned, rough unruffled and few clubs intact.

One key to Mr. Derr's success behind the tee is his almost photographic memory of aids and hazards of fairways. This, coupled with an exceptional capacity for concentration, may be the telling in Dave's golfing future.

MAYBE THIS YEAR

With the advent of spring training, Pleasant Hill High School football players are coming out of summer hibernation and looking forward to their first varsity pigskin win, which they hope to obtain this year.

In lieu of a more detailed account of Ram prospects, a summary of players by posistion will be presented here.

At center the Rams count on the services of Chuck Exner and Craig McKay. Each has had one year of Freshman, Jayvee and Varsity experience. Chuck was the first string offensive center and defensive linebacker, while McKay worked as linebacker during the last half-season.

John Turner, Dick Garren and Fred Rupprecht, a sophomore, will probably be filling the guard slots on offense and defense for the "56" season. Dick is a converted end and it is quite possible that he will be re-converted this year, after the pass-catching weaknesses the Rams displayed in "55."

John Turner has a year of Freshman, Jayvee and Varsity ball behind him. Fred Rupprecht came into his own on the varsity last year and is expected to be a key figure in the Rams' future. It is at guard and backfield positions that Pleasant Hill will probably show its greatest strength.

Tackles are in question this year, but transfers and jayvees will necessarily be utilized.

At the present time only one varsity end, Dan Ipson, a sophomore, is available for play this season. Ipson and Garren, if he is switched, will form the nucleus of the pass-catching set.

Mike Cereda, Jon Lockwood and Bob March are the lettermen, who will be the returning halfbacks. Mike, with two years of jayvee and one of varsity on the books, Jon, with jayvee experience at Acalanes and one of varsity at Pleasant Hill and Bob, with one each of frosh, jayvee and varsity ball, comprise a dependable backfield.

Al locatelli and Mike Mayne are expected to battle it out for Ram quarterback when practice starts in mid-August. Al was moved to first string at the beginning of the season last year and held this position all season. Mike was ineligible in "55," but attended practice anyway. He is an exceptionally hard runner.

There are no returning fullback lettermen to the team this year.

Several jayvee players are destined to fill in the ranks upstairs in the opening game. Among these are: Ray Rice, back; Baron McDonald, back; Jerry Warner, back; Mike Sousa, back; Bob Satake, line; and Joe Santaro, back.

CD Plan Board Will Confer

The Contra Costa Joint City-County Civil Defense Planning Board, composed of the directors and assistant directors of civil defense, will hold a monthly meeting on Tuesday noon at the Monument Bowl Trophy Room, 2265 Contra Costa Highway.

A review of Operation Alert 1956, and suggested plans for National Defense Week September 9 to 15 will be on the agenda.

The monthly meeting of the Civil Defense Sub-council Coordinators' Organization was held at the Control Center, 2130 Arnold Highway, Martinez.

In addition to a review of Operation Alert 1956, the agenda included suggestions and plans for National Civil Defense Week, September 9 to 15.

Students Get Degrees From San Jose State

Local students at San Jose State College received two of the 404 degrees granted by the college at Summer Session commencement exercises last Friday.

Stanley F. Black of Walnut Creek was granted the master of arts degree in industrial arts, while Robert Borghesani of Lafayette received the bachelor of arts in business.

The degrees were conferred on the candidates by President John T. Wahlquist in the afternoon ceremonies in the school's Morris Dailey Auditorium.

Diamond Chatter...

League Winners, Standings In Next Week"s Chatter'

Next week's column should have all league winners and final standings. Any tie or postponed games that are bearing on the top spots shall be played off.

In the coast league Thompson Electric seems to be the winner. In Western League Hendrick's Piano had at least a tie clinched. A play off will be had if two teams tie for top spot.

The Eastern League has been won by Sports and Games and Kaiser Co. has cinched runner up. A scramble is on for third place. Games will be played Sunda if need be.

Kitty Bar plays Hayward Realty for third place on Sunday at City Park, 4 p.m.

ALL UNIFORMS are to be cleaned and turned in to coaches one week after season ends. Do not wash suits. This means the Western and Eastern Leagues. These uniforms shall be moth balled and put away for next season.

Many people have said they are sorry to see the season end. Hats off to the fine parents who supported their boys and teams and if there are a nicer bunch of fans in this land they will have to prove it.

It's not fun rooting for your team and lose to often but the main concern seems to be for the boys as a group. Having been with a winner all year it was hard many times to face such swell sports and just plain great mothers and dads.

Boggs Texaco won its first game of the season and so every team in all leagues tasted victory. It's been fun considering all efforts put forth by many fine sponsors and coaches. The Rec. Dept. really went all out to give the great amount of boys a chance to play, close to 600 boys in all.

EASTERN LEAGUE

	Won	Lost	Tie
Sports & Games	13	0

Frankie Albert Leads 49er Training at St. Mary's

Frank Cullen Albert, at 36 the youngest head coach in the National Football League, last Saturday greeted 21 San Francisco 49er veterans who reported for training camp at St. Mary's College.

It's the latest starting date ever for the 49ers, who must meet the world champion Cleveland Browns at Kezar Stadium, San Francisco, in another week. Twelve other veterans had already been working out for a week with the rookies, at the Moraga Valley campus.

Upwards of 15 of the incoming vets were teammates of Albert when the little southpaw made his final tour of NFL playing duty in 1952. He was their leader on the field then; now he'll be directing strategy from the bench.

THE OLD-TIMERS will find that Albert's enthusiasm and spirit are as contagious as ever. They'll also find that Frank is deadly serious about being as successful in the coaching field as he was as one of the game's great quarterbacks.

Albert's staff is young all the way around, with Phil Bengston the "pappy guy" at 42. Red Hickey is 37; Mark Duncan and Joe Vetrano, 36, and Bill Johnson, 28.

Hickey, vetrano and Johnson, like Albert, had outstanding careers in pro ball as players Bengston coached at Missouri and Stanford before joining the 49ers in 1951, while Duncan became nationally famous for his work as an assistant mentor at Colorado A&M.

ALBERT'S ABILITY to organize the training camp routine has already brought high praise from newspapermen and other observers. But Frank always finds time to relieve the hard work and tension with a wisecrack at the right moment.

The new 49er head coach firmly believes the club's personnel is much better than last year's disastrous 4-8 record.

"We're blessed with one of the game's greatquarterbacks in Y. A. Tittle," he says, "plus outstanding runners like Hugh McElhenney, Joe Perry, John Henry Johnson and Dicky Moegle. We're hoping they'll get some help from rookies, and there's no doubt in my mind our new crop is a good one."

Sideline "quarterbacks" here have been especially impressed by the work of Halfback Ralph Moody, Kansas; Fullback Paul Goad, Abilene Christian, and End Chuck Smith, also Abilene Christian. The coaches have withheld praise of any particular rookies, preferring to wait and see how they stack up against the veterans.

All motorboats must carry one life-saving device for every person on board, including children and babies. They must be a type approved by the Coast Guard, and must be easily available. They may be ring buoys, life jackets, or box cushions. Class 3 boats may not use cushions in place of life preservers.

FOOTBALL FINESSE is demonstrated by San Francisco Forty-Niner coach Frankie Albert as he sends his charges through a practice session at St. Mary's College in Moraga. Well acquainted with the quarterback position in which he here takes the ball, Albert is whipping his professional gridders into shape on the local campus for the coming pigskin season. — Sun photo by Mattson

Lafayette Youth Baseball Finals Will Be Tonight

The Lafayette Youth Baseball Leaugues swing into their final day of regular scheduled games tonight, with only make-ups on tap for next week.

The Minor league finds Kings Food Center out in front with an undefeated record of seven wins and no losses, with one tie game marring an otherwise perfect season.

The tie came about last Friday when Lafayette Rental played them to a 4-4 standstill in a game called due to darkness.

The big battle in the Minors looms for the runner-up spot between Gaston's Cleaners, with a 5-2 mark, and Sports and Games, who have come to the front after a slow start and as of this writing had a 5-3 record in the win-lose column.

Standings through last Monday night were as follows:

MINOR LEAGUE

	W	L	T
Kings Food Center	7	0	1
Gaston's Cleaners	5	2	0
Sports and Games	5	3	0
Lafayette Rental	4	3	1
Lafayette Pharmacy	4	4	0
Lincoln Development	4	5	0
Rett-White Motors	3	5	0
Sun Valley Lumber	3	5	0
Lafayette Furniture	3	5	0
Jacuzzi Hydrotherapy	1	7	0

In the Major League, Sports and games rests atop the heap with an unblemished 6-0 tally, and the only club that appears to be able to overtake them is Lafayette Furniture, which has played two more games, had but a single loss and was in the runner-up spot with a 7-1 count.

Standings in the majors through last Monday night are as follows:

MAJOR LEAGUE

	W	L
Sports and Games	6	0
Lafayette Furniture	7	1
Lafayette Pharmacy	5	3
Lafayette Rental	4	3
Sun Valley Lumber	4	3
Gaston's Cleaners	3	3
Jacuzzi Hydrotherapy	2	4
Kings Food Center	2	5
Lincoln Development	1	7
Rett-White Motors	1	8

Games on tap tonight find Lafayette Rental meeting Lafayette Furniture at Mattson Park in the Majors' final, while the Minors hold forth at Hageman Field, with Gaston's and Lafayette Furniture crossing bats. Both games are set for 6:30 p.m.

AL NELSON has rounded up an number of games on tap. Loaded with top talent, he will play St. Helena, Napa and Santa Cruz, with probably a couple of other games being added before the season closes.

It is interesting to note that a number of players have come a long way in their development, and one of these is Neil Winters o Sports and Games in the Minors. Neil has come along and developed into a fine shortstop, and lately has developed a heavy stick in that he has banged out a couple of home runs which is O.K. for a 10-year-old.

IN THE MAJORS one of the standouts is "Yogi" Pegovich, who catches for Sun Valley Lumber. Good size and a good arm, coupled with desire, will find him developing into a future varsity catcher at Acalanes.

Like Denny Toll, he hails from Arizona by way of Globe. In fact, he left for vacation at Globe, which didn't add any smiles to Al Nelson's face, as Al wanted him for All-Star play.

Another Minors player who is coming along is Ronald Maccario of Jacuzzi Hydrotherapy, who has caught the eye of many fans with his sterling play.

Sideline Slants

Success of Youth Leagues Resulted from Cooperation

By ERWIN MATTSON

THE LAFAYETTE YOUTH BASEBALL Leagues wind up the regular schedule tonight, and it's a good time to look back over what has been accomplished in the past weeks since the leagues opened on June 11.

Two parks were built in short order, and a lot of work was put in by a lot of people.

The driving force in getting the Lafayette leagues going was Gordon McNulty, who not only talked but rolled up his sleeves and went to work. Such a job takes an organizer, and to say that Gordon did a bang-up job is putting it mildly.

A great deal more was accomplished in the first year than would normally be expected.

Full credit should go to the 10 sponsors who came through with the necessary money.

Also, a salute to the Lafayette Rotary, which made a sizeable donation of the green stuff so necessary to run the leagues.

Mistakes were made and there were rough spots—but, all in all, things went off in fine fashion.

Commissioner Al Nelson spent many hours on all the details and problems that came up.

The most important thing is that several hundred kids got a chance to play ball. Lots of fun was had, and many lessons were learned. There were moments of joy, along with a few tears.

The umpires were "blind" and fans had their fun, so, all in all, it was a good year and well worth while. Games were won and games were lost but they will soon become dim memories in the race for next year's pennant.

Winning isn't all-important, but the desire to win is very important. lose and be a good loser, but you don't have to like it!

IT WON'T BE LONG now until football takes the limelight—in fact, it has already stolen its share of the headlines.

Tonight the All-Star game is on in Chicago, with last year's collegiate stars tackling the Cleveland Browns.

The 49'ers have drawn thousands to their St. Mary's College workouts, and with new head man Frankie Albert at the helm, interest is keen.

The pros will probably draw better than ever with Frankie in the seat, plus the fact that Pacific Coast intercollgiate football is pretty much of a question mark as to quality at this stage of the game.

The high school preps no doubt will draw more interest than usual, which is saying quite a bit, in view of the keen interest displayed each year.

Footballs are beginning to fill the air as the kids take to practice sessions of their own volition. Official practice is still several weeks off, coming the end of the month.

In fact, next week should see announcement regarding physical examinations and the drawing of gear.

Players should begin running and taking exercises now! New shoes should be worn a few minutes each day and gradually broken in.

The serious player will begin working and will get himself into top shape before the first practice.

The players doing this will to a large extent determine final standings.

The condition is important — and even more so is the attitude that goes with it. There is no substitute for desire, and you can't buy it at a sporting goods store.

Destruction Derby is Tomorrow

Car parts are due to fly in all directions when the first annual "Destruction Derby" is held tomorrow night, at Contra Costa Speedway near Walnut Creek.

Promoter Gene Marsh announced that $1000 in prize money and trophies will be awarded — with a total of $500 going to the winning team.

The action is open to all men drivers over 21 years old. Entries can be made by contacting Jack Smith at SWeetwood 8-7301.

"We are accepting entries on a team basis," Smith explained, "with a limit of one team from each city or town. A team consists of four cars."

The "Destruction Derby" will be held on the Contra Costa infield.

All drivers will line up their cars around the infield. When the bell sounds they steer into one another with the object of putting rival cars out of commission.

Action will be held in 15-minute periods, with brief rests in between so drivers can bend fenders and bumpers back into shape.

Tht winning car is the last one still able to operate after several hours of colliding head-on with other cars.

"It's kind of wild," Smith agreed.

Summer Calls for Extra Care to Keep Lawns Green

By THE GARDENER

Mid-Summer brings hot weather to most parts of California and hot weather means trouble for grass lawns. Mid-summer's heat, however, is not the only cause of lawn trouble, says the California Association of Nurserymen.

The dry, brown spots and general unhealthy condition of your lawn can be caused by lawn moth, packed soil, fertilizer burn and even by poor watering methods.

Lawn moths and larvae destroy lawns by feeding on them. You can determine if this insect causes your particular trouble by applying a solution made up of 2 tablespoons of pyrethrum in a gollon of water to two square yards of your lawn making sure this test area includes both green and brown areas.

If moths are present, this solution will bring them to the surface. You may then kill the moth and its larvae with lead arsenate, chlordane or diedrin sprays each of which will be effective for a month or more with each application.

Packed soil is a common cause for unhealthy and unattractive lawns, especially in areas where adobe and clay soils predominate. A general browning-out and lackluster appearance is a good indication that the soil beneath your sod is packed and thus impenetrable.

Packed soil can be corrected by applications of a commercial liquid soil-conditioner which loosens the packed soil or by a comcercial dry chemical corrector. The latter must be thoroughly worked into the soil with a rake followed by a thorough watering. Hand spiking instruments are also effective for breaking up hard soil and for deep-watering; nowever, the dry chemical method is perhaps easier and in general more satisfactory.

Year-round efforts to build a healthy sod should be intensified during the summer. During the hot season, cut your lawn at least once a week allowing the clippings to fall onto the lawn. These clippings dry and decompose forming a moisture holding barrier against the sun.

If you have not followed this procedure before, you may accomplish the same purpose quickly by spreading a layer of peat moss over your lawn and watering it down.

Lawns also need feeding every three or four months with a good fertilizer. If the general wear and tear and the heat have caused your lawn to deteriorate, move up your scheduled feeding to correct it. If you are not now following a feeding schedule, consult your nurseryman and select a fertilizer.

To avoid fertilizer burn, be careful to follow the directions on the package. Never fertilize wet grass for this is likely to cause burn even when the correct amounts are used.

Apply the fertilizer when the grass is dry and water heavily immediately afterward. Should you happen to overfertilize and the lawn begins to burn, soak the area thoroughly to flood out the excess fertilizer.

Baldwin Votes For Series of 11th Hour Bills

With the conclusion of sessions by the U. S. House of Representatives, Congressman John Baldwin of the Sixth District, told the Sun that he voted for favorable action on several last-minute bills.

They included the following:

A bill to raise retirement survivor benefits an estimated $345 million per year for some 2,100,000 Federal employees. Employees will be required to contribute 6½ per cent of their salaries to Civil Service Retirment Fund, if passed by the Senate, and made into laws.

A BILL THAT provides for an average increase of 15 per cent in pensions of retired railroad employees.

A conference report which approved giving women social security benefits at 62 instead of 65, and disabled persons at 50 instead of 65. Also payroll tax on the first $4200 of annual income will be increased from 2 per cent to 2¼ per cent for employee and employer.

A bill increasing the pension of widows of Spanish American War Veterans from $54 per month to $75 per month.

A bill exempting from the present 10 per cent excise tax, admissions of 90 cents or less. This applies to many motion picture theatre tickets.

A CIVIL RIGHTS bill, "providing additional legal protection for the right to vote."

An omnibus rivers and harbors and flood control bill which authorizes surveys of the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers at March Creek, Kellogg Creek and others.

An appropriation bill loaning the Solano Irrigation District $12,700,000 for irrigation distribution system for the Monticello Dam. The house had originally earmarked $2,500,000, sufficient for the first year.

PH, Moraga Master Plans To Switzerland Exhibition

A Contra Costa County exhibit, showing master plans for the Pleasant Hill and Moraga areas, will be one of three to be displayed by this country in Zurich, Switzerland, during the International Federation of Landscape Architects Congress.

County Planning Director Thomas G. Heaton said the county exhibit was selected by members of the American Society of Landscape Architects during their recent convention in Cleveland, Ohio.

MARION PACKARD, chairman of professional exhibits for the Cleveland meeting, said today in a letter to Heaton that the Contra Costa display was selected as one of "the three best exhiibts on community planning in the United States."

"We are sure that the exhibit of Contra Costa County will well represent the excellent work that is being done in this country in county planning," he added.

Packard said the Contra Costa exhibit was selected "because of its outstanding techniques in planning."

Urban, suburban and industrial planing will be featured topics durig the Zurich meeting, Heaton added.

HEATON SAID the county's two plans deal directly with these three phases of planning, mainly emphasizing the newly developed zoning for office and controlled manufacturing districts.

Besides the two general plans, the county exhibit includes oblique serial photos depicting the areas covered in the general plans.

Besides the two general plans, the county exhibit includes oblique serial photos depicting the areas ocvered in the general plans.

Heaton said his "whole staff is to be congratulated on this honor for our department. All of their efforts contributed to the outstanding features of the exhibit.

Committee to Decide on Zone 3-B Consultant

The choice of a financial consultant who will advise the Contra Costa Flood Control and Water Conservation District during the campaign to pass a $9 million bond issue will depend on the Citizens Advisory Committee, it was decided recently.

The district commissioners left the matter open until word is received from the committee, after a meeting last week.

An election to decide whether a flood control program will be financed by a $9,875,000 bond issue will be held early in December, it has been indicated.

Opera Group Plans Concert

The San Francisco Opera Association will sponsor a gala preseason opera concert as its part in the forthcoming Italian Festival.

Two of this season's top-ranking stars, soprano Renata Tebaldi and a male star of the San Francisco Opera, to be announced, will appear in operatic arias and duets with the San Francisco Opera Orchestra directed by Glauco Curiel on September 9 at 8:30.

Orchestral selections will be from the popular operatic repertoire.

The opera concert is one of numerous events within the framework of the public fete arranged by the local Italian Consulate and its Consul-General, Dr. Pierlugi Alvara with the support of the Italian Government.

Falstaff to Open in SF

Rarely is it possible to assemble a cast equal to the vocal and histrionic demands of Verdi's comedy, "Falstaff," say enthusiasts.

San Francisco Opera's Kurt Herbert Adler, convinced he has just such a cast this season, plans to present this masterpiece in San Francisco on September 21, with a repeat performance on September 27.

His choice of artists includes Elisabeth Schwartzkopf, Leonard Warren, Giuseppe Campora, Madeline Chambers, Frank Guarrera, Nicola Moscona, Oralia Dominguez, Margaret Roggero, Virginio Assandri and Alessio de Paolis. Highlighting the first performance will be the debuts of soprano Chambers and tenor Campora.

'Hadleyburg' is Ironic Success

Mark Twain's "The Man Who Corrupted Hadleyburg" now playing at The Playhouse, Beach and Hyde Streets, is one of his greatest achievements, say producers.

A mysterious bequest of $40,000 dumped into the laps of the leading families of a small town very much upsets their notions of themselves virtuous and right eous.

The Playhouse production, designed with a pair of revolving stages, takes the audience in and out of nearly every place in Hadleyburg, and allows them to view the diaboical scheme being set in motion.

Performances are Friday and Saturday evenings at 8:30. Tickets at $1.50 are available at Sherman, Clay or PRospect 5-4426.

AFS Students Feted as Guests In Europe Stay

Allen Shapiro, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Shapiro, 18 La Vuelta, Orinda, was entertained last weekend at the home of Fritz Borst in Dusseldorf, Germany, which is called "the Paris of Germany" because of its beauty.

Allen, a summer exchange student under the American Field Service Exchange Scholarship program, is currently the guest of the Adams family in Stiepel, Germany.

His recent host, Fritz, will be leaving soon for Lafayette, where he will spend the next school year with the Fred I. Lincolns, 1115 Oak Hill Road, while attending Acalanes High School.

The second AFS representative from Acalanes, Smed Ambler, has gone to Marseilles, where he will spend the rest of this month with the Stouff family. Smed is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Ambler, 220 El Toyonal, Orinda.

Papsie's Paddling Draws Awes, Win

Papsie Georgian, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. E. E. Georgian, 4030 Happy Valley Road, recently added two more titles to her list of swimming accomplishments.

At Napa, she won the 12 and Under Solo Event at the Far Western Synchronized Swim Meet. Then Papsie went to Reno for the U.S. National Outdoor Synchronized Swim Championships which were held at Lawton's Hot Springs.

She successfully defended the 12 and Under Solo Title she won last year at Houston, Texas.

Papsie swims for the Athens Water Follies.

Esther Meuniet Is Honor Nursing Grad

Esther Meuniet, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred A. Meuniet of 3206 Palomares, will be graduated cum laude from the Highland School of Nursing tomorrow at a ceremony in the newly constructed Highland Auditorium.

During the past three years, Esther has been very active in the Highland Choir and has sung with the Triple Trio. She has also served on numerous committees.

Miss Meuniet and her 48 classmates started a week of activities with Baccalaureate Service Sunday.

Moraga Dateline

By EVA THUNE, DR 6-5593

Altogether, I would venture to say that this has been a mild, on the average, pleasant summer, with not too many hot days, electric storms, fog or cold.

Nature progresses unobtrusively on her way, so now the fruit workers have arrived in our Valley, and pear picking has begun. Reports have it that the pears in the Burton Ranch area are grade A quality.

BACK TO SCHOOL

School starts Wednesday, September 5, according to Harry Rohrer, School Trustee Clerk, and will open with four rooms and teachers. All schools within the Acalanes School District will open on the same date.

At the present time, work is in progress to remodel the auditorium into two school rooms, but only one room will be utilized until need for the second room is apparent.

We are all sorry to hear of the resignation of Mrs. Hauskens and Mrs. Oldford. Mrs. Hauskens will be teaching at the Lafayette School, which is practically around the corner from her home, and Mrs. Oldford's husband has returned to the ministry, so the family has moved to San Mateo.

We will miss both of them, but wish them all the luck in the world in their respective ventures.

At the moment, we now have two new teachers hired, Mrs. Mercedes Rossel, third and fourth grades and Mrs. Eleanor Latham, fifth and sixth.

Mr. Toll, our new principal, teaches seventh and eighth grades, and the teacher for the first and second grades has not been definitely decided upon to date.

It is estimated an approximate 100 students will register for the new fall term. Registration dates will be announced later.

NEW PROSPECT

A coming recruit for first grade is Miss Teresa Eve Yates, born July 27, 1956, at the Kaiser Foundation Hospital in Walnut Creek. Teresa, weight 6 pounds, 2½ ounces, is the new daughter of Robert and Betty Yates of Larch Avenue, and the sister of Stephen Craig, 7, who is already a student at Moraga School.

Mother and daughter are home, feeling fine and very happy about the whole situation.

Not so happy is Mrs. Jo Rogers of Larch Avenue, who is getting around on a crutch, with a fractured bone in her foot. One of those freak accidents which too often occur in the home, but which can so often cause a lot of damage.

It seems that Jo was dismantling a table after a birthday party for her twin nephews, sons of Mr. and Mrs. James Lynch of San Lorenzo, when the table came apart and fell on her foot. It never rains but what it pours, does it, Jo?

Visitor for the past week at the home of the Bill Lances of Camino Pablo is Mrs. Edna Lance's niece, Miss Christine Rigney of San Francisco.

On a week's visit to her sister, Mrs. Edward Thomas of San Fernando Valley, is Mrs. Jean Davis of Rheem Boulevard. Jean drove down with friends and is scheduled to fly home.

GOOD TIMES AHEAD

Miss Marion Collett, Jean's daughter and Miss Pamela Dermit, both of Rheem Boulevard, left with Mrs. Davis, and accompanied her as far as Whitaker Forest, which is close to King's Canyon.

They will spend two weeks with Marion's grandfather, Mr. Clyde Williams, who is the caretaker of the camp for Girl Scouts, Camp Fire Girls and 4-H Club, which is owned by the University of California Extension of Forestry Service. Sounds like the two girls will have a lot of fun. They certainly won't lack for company!

Reports are that the turnout from the Moraga area at the voting polls was excellent. Democracy at it's best, each individual given a right to express his personal desires.

What about those people who are heartless enough to dump baby kittens, with eyes yet unopened, beside the road to die from starvation or be run over by automobiles? There ought to be a law!

This is your community. Help make it a better place to live in.

Belated Party; Surprised Host

Lance Nielsen, son of the Mel Nielsens of Ridge Road, was the surprised host at a post-graduation party recently at his home.

When Lance returned from a Scout hike at 7:30 p.m., he found his eighth grade classmates from Stanley School's June graduating class assembled in the family room of the Nielsen home for a surprise party.

The youngsters enjoyed refreshments, dancing, and such games as a shooting gallery, Indian wrestling, and ping-pong.
